

News and Opportunities

December 18–December 24, 2022

We are glad to be worshipping with you today and hope you will explore the many opportunities for learning, serving, and community building at Fourth Church!

✳️ Inspired by the radical hospitality of Jesus Christ, we welcome everyone, without exception, into the life of this congregation. ✳️ We invite you to join us at this intersection of faith and life as we share God’s grace with one another and the world through worship and ministries of healing, reconciliation, and justice.

Although wearing a mask is not required at Fourth Church, we as a community have made a commitment to be a mask-welcoming campus, encouraging the wearing of masks by anyone who wants or needs to wear one. As a mask-welcoming campus, we remain committed to ensuring no one will feel out of place should they choose to wear a mask while at Fourth Church.

✳️ In the Sanctuary, the front section on the pulpit side is for those required to or choosing to practice social distancing, and everyone sitting in that section is required to wear a mask. The remainder of the Sanctuary is open seating.

For those who prefer to worship online or who are unable to join us in person, we livestream our morning service at 10:00 a.m. on our YouTube channel (www.bit.ly/fpcvideos), where the service is also available for viewing afterwards. ✳️ Those without Internet access are invited to listen to the morning service via phone by calling 888.916.9166 at the time of the service.

You can receive the previous Sunday’s sermon text by email by subscribing at www.bit.ly/fpcsermons

✳️ Available by podcast is an invitation to join Matt Helms and Rocky Supinger in biblical exploration as they discuss the “Bible Top Ten” in their podcast by that title, with new episodes released every other Tuesday at www.fourthchurch.org/podcast

This year consider giving gifts that give twice: to the recipient and to the maker and their family.

The World Mission and Social Justice Council invites you to shop for a difference this holiday season by shopping fair trade. Our longtime fair-trade partner, Ten Thousand Villages Evanston, is part of the “global maker-to-market movement that breaks the cycle of generational poverty and ignites social change.” They have both an online presence at www.tenthousandvillages.com/evanston as well as a store at 915 Chicago Ave. in Evanston.

For many, the celebration of Christmas is made difficult by feelings of loneliness, grief, alienation, and sadness, whether personal or collective. Our “Longest Night” service, which will be hosted by our Stephen Ministers this Wednesday evening, December 21 at 6:30 p.m. in Buchanan Chapel, recognizes and makes space for these feelings and challenges. ✨ Those who would appreciate a time of reflection and meditation prior to the service are invited to walk the labyrinth in Anderson Hall between 5:30 and 6:30 p.m. that evening. Spiritual Formation Council hosts will be on hand to offer guidance.
