Third Sunday in Lent

Our household for the time made right,
All right around us on the hill,
For time and for this time, tonight,
Two kernels folded in one shell,

We're joined in sleep beyond desire,
To one another and to time, . . .

In faith no better sighted yet
Than when we plighted first by hope,
By vows more solemn than we thought,
Ourselves to this combining sleep.

A quarter century ago,
Lives given to each other and
To time, to lives we did not know
Already given, heart and hand.

Would I come to this time this way
Again, now that I know, confess
So much, knowing I cannot say
More now than then what will be? Yes.

We are not alone; we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God. (United Church of Canada)

Worship Notes

The bulletin cover features an unfolding flower growing out of a crown of thorns, which provides an apt metaphor for the new life arising from Christ's death and resurrection. This flower and crown of thorns is carved into the underside of the octagonal sounding board over the pulpit.

The composer of the prelude "Litany," Joel Martinson (b. 1960), teaches liturgy and church music at the University of North Texas in Denton. He is also Director of Music Ministries and Organist at St. Rita Catholic Community Church in Dallas, Texas. The sensitive and colorful writing evident in "Litany" demonstrates why critics praise Martinson as one of America's finest composers.

"One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering

For more than fifty years, Christians throughout the nation have given gifts to the "One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering, responding to Christ's love for all people by joyfully sharing that love with people in need. Each year during Lent, Fourth Presbyterian Church receives this offering, which supports Fourth Church's Center for Whole Life in Cabrini-Green, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Self-Development of People program.

To make a gift to the "One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering, use one of the envelopes in the pew racks or write "One Great Hour" on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.
