Introit

“Now Let Our Voices Join”
Curt Oliver

Now let our voices join to raise a sacred song; ye pilgrims in Jehovah’s ways with music pass along. See flowers of paradise in rich profusion spring; the sun of glory gilds the path and dear companions sing. See Salem’s golden spires in beauteous prospect rise and brighter crowns than mortals wear, which sparkle through the skies. All honor to the name which marks the shining way, to Christ who leads the pilgrims on to realms of endless day!

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy, forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

*Stand as you are able.

*APOSTLES’ CREED
(unison)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand
of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.
PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD’S PRAYER  (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom
and the power
and the glory forever.
Amen.

PRAYER RESPONSE  “Hear Our Prayer, O Lord”  Plainsong

arr. Richard Gore

Hear our prayer, O Lord, and let our crying come unto thee.
Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name. Amen.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM  “Who Am I?”  Paul French

Who am I? They often tell me I would step from my cell’s confinement calmly, cheerfully, firmly, like a squire from his country house. They often tell me I would talk to my warders freely and friendly and clearly, as though it were mine to command. They also tell me I would bear the days of misfortune equably, smilingly, proudly, like one accustomed to win.
Am I then really all that which other men tell of? Or am I only what I know of myself, restless and longing and sick, like a bird in a cage; struggling for breath as though hands were compressing my throat; yearning for colors, for flowers,
for voices of birds; thirsting for words of kindness,
for neighborliness; trembling with anger at despots and
petty humiliation; tossing in expectation of great events;
powerlessly trembling for friends at an infinite distance;
weary and empty at praying, at thinking, at making; faint, and ready to say farewell to it all? This or the other?
Am I one person today and tomorrow another? Am I both at once?
A hypocrite before others and before myself a contemptibly woebegone weakling? Or is something within me still like a beaten army, fleeing disorder from victory already achieved?
They mock me these lonely questions of mine.
Whoever I am, thou knowest, O God, I am thine.

Worship Notes

The text of this morning's Offertory Anthem, “Who Am I?, was written by Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a Protestant pastor jailed during World War II. He wrote this poem while in prison, and it was later published in Letters and Papers from Prison.

Fourth Church welcomes to the 11:00 worship service the Confirmation class from New England Church in Aurora.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, “Unweavings” created by Laurie Wohl, were commissioned by Fourth Church for use during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church year (the season between Epiphany and Lent and between Pentecost and Advent). Through their combination of scripture texts and image, these banners celebrate and elevate the perception of the sacred in the “ordinary” as we make our faith journey day to day.

The bulletin cover photo, taken during an early December snow, shows a coiled vine hanging from a tree on the Michigan Avenue side of the cloisters.
