Welcome to Worship at Fourth Presbyterian Church

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today’s Worship
Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary. Worship also can be heard through the “T” setting of hearing aids.

If your infant or child needs care or becomes disruptive during the worship service, you may leave the sanctuary and return as you wish. Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in the Nursery in the Page Smith Room, straight through the south transept doors. See an usher for directions.

Worship folders, containing quiet activities and a bulletin designed for children, are available from the ushers outside the south transept doors, between the sanctuary and Anderson Hall, and in the Narthex, at the back of the sanctuary.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church
Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship.

We invite you to stop by Coffee Hour after worship for fellowship, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

A church tour begins at 12:15 p.m., starting at the back of the sanctuary.

Parking is available on Sundays at 900 North Michigan (access from Rush or Walton Street) at the rate of $7.75. Validation tickets for the 900 garage must be picked up during morning Coffee Hour or from the Chestnut Street reception desk. Discounted parking at the Hancock garage, 875 North Michigan Avenue, is available on Sunday mornings only, at the rate of $6.00 for three hours. Hancock tickets must be validated in the Narthex.

“Call to Remembrance, O Lord” Richard Farrant

*HYMN 371 “Lift High the Cross” Tune: Crucifer

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

God of compassion,
you are slow to anger and full of mercy,
welcoming sinners who return
to you with penitent hearts.
Receive in your loving embrace
all who come home to you.
Seat them at your bountiful table of grace that,
with all your children,
they may feast with delight
on all that satisfies the hungry heart.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ,
our Savior, who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever. Amen.

*Apostles’ Creed
(unison)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting.
Amen.
Prayers of the People

The Lord’s Prayer (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom
and the power
and the glory forever.
Amen.

    the cross to seal us in the covenant of your love.
    By your Spirit,
    give us the grace of repentance

The Great East Window in the Fourth Presbyterian Church sanctuary was designed by Charles J. Connick and installed in 1930. In 1937, Fourth Church gave the east window that had been installed at the time the sanctuary was built (1914) to the Roseland Presbyterian Church at 11200 S. State Street. That original window, done in the style of the grisaille windows along the aisles of the sanctuary, can still be seen at the church, which is today known as Cornerstone Presbyterian Church.

Worship Notes

Tower Brass, Fourth Church’s brass octet, participates in worship leadership on the third Sunday of each month during the academic year.

Fourth Church is grateful to the Concert Choir of Macalester College, from St. Paul, Minnesota, and directed by Eugene Rogers, for its music leadership this morning.

This morning’s Prayer of Confession is from The Worship Sourcebook (Calvin Institute of Christian Worship).

John Buchanan’s sermons during Lent will consider “A Full and Faithful Life” and are based on texts from Matthew 6–7.

The One Great Hour of Sharing Offering is being received throughout Lent. Gifts to this offering support Chicago Lights as well as Presbyterian Disaster Assistance and the Presbyterian Hunger Program. Gifts can be made by using the envelopes in the pew racks or by writing “Lenten Offering” on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.

The bulletin cover quote by Harold Kushner is cited in Simon Wiesenthal’s The Sunflower: On the Possibilities and Limits of Forgiveness.
