MORNING WORSHIP

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

PRELUDE

Dulce Memoria (O Blessed Memory)
Hernando de Cabezón

INTROIT

“Out of the Depths”
*Martin Luther
arr. Johann Sebastian Bach*

Out of the depths to thee I raise the voice of lamentation;
Lord, turn a gracious ear to me and hear my supplication.
If thou shouldst count our every sin, each evil deed or thought within, O, who could stand before thee?

DOXOLOGY AND INVOCATION

(The Hymnal, 592)

HYMN 261

“God of Compassion, in Mercy Befriend Us”
Tune: O QUANTA QUALIA

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Forgiving God, help us now to be honest with you and with ourselves as we acknowledge that we have sinned and fallen short of who you created us to be in your image. For we have been indifferent to and distant from those in need. Preoccupied with ourselves, we are unwilling to be inconvenienced for the sake of the welfare of others. We have entrusted ourselves to hate more than to love, to wounding more than to healing, to war more than to peace, to death more than to life. Call us forth from the tomb of our self-centeredness and unbind us from guilt and shame, that with newness of life we may serve you all our days. Amen.

DECLARATION OF PARDON

Minister: Friends, believe the good news.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

*Apostles’ Creed
(unison)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,

and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom

and the glory forever.
Amen.

Communion Anthem “Behold, the Lamb of God” from Messiah

George Frideric Handel

Behold, the lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world.
Prayer after Communion (unison)

Gracious God, by your forgiving love, revealed once more in this sacrament of grace,
you set us free from bondage to sin, shame,
and self and call us forth from death to life.
Help us to live in that freedom by faithfully serving those in need and by showing your love in the world. Amen.

Benediction and Response

Postlude  Lord, Have Mercy upon Us  François Couperin

The Lord’s Supper at Fourth Presbyterian Church

The Lord’s Supper is the sign and seal of eating and drinking in communion with the crucified and risen Lord. In this act, we remember that during his earthly ministry, Jesus shared meals with his followers and sat at dinner tables as a sign of acceptance of the sinner and the outcast. In the act of remembering that is the Lord’s Supper, we receive and trust the love of Christ present to us and to the world. Through it, we are renewed and empowered to be the church, the body of Christ, in the world.

The invitation to the Lord’s Supper is not just for Presbyterians or “members of the church.” All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to partake of the Lord’s Supper. Even one who doubts or whose trust is wavering may receive the bread and grape juice (in place of wine) in order to be assured of God’s love and grace in Jesus Christ.

This morning, Communion is served by intinction. The congregation will come forward by the center aisle to receive the bread, which they will then dip into the chalice of grape juice. Worshipers will return to their pews by the side aisles.

Worship Notes

This morning’s prelude can be traced back to sixteenth- and seventeenth-century Spanish music, a period that came to be known as the Spanish Golden Age due to the consistently high quality of work created during that period by Spanish artists in the fields of music, literature, and visual arts.

The One Great Hour of Sharing Offering is being received throughout Lent. Gifts to this offering support Chicago Lights Tutoring and the Elam Davies Social Service Center as well as the work of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and the Presbyterian Self-Development of People Program. To make a “One Great Hour of Sharing” gift, you can use the envelopes in the pew racks or write “Lenten Offering” on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.
