I believe in God the Father Almighty,

 who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
 born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, dead, and buried;
 he descended into hell;
 the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
 from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
 the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
 the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

The Lord’s Prayer (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy name.
 Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
 and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Prayer Response

“Amen” . . . . . Clarence Dickinson

Offertory Anthem

“Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi” . . . . . Ron Nelson

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O, Divine Master, grant that I may seek not so much to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

*Presentation of the Offering and Response

For the life that you have giv-en, for the love in Christ made known,
with these fruits of time and la - bor, with these gifts that are your own:
here we of - fer, Lord, our prai - ses; heart and mind and strength we bring.
Give us grace to love and serve you, liv - ing what we pray and sing.

*Prayer of Dedication (unison)

God of generous providing, we belong to you,
and all that we have belongs to you.
Use these offerings, we pray,

Worship in the Reformed Tradition

As the headings in our bulletin remind us each week, the center of our worship is the Word—by which we mean both Scripture and the Living Word of God, Jesus Christ. Our Scripture witnesses to God and God's activity. When it is read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ the Living Word is present by the inward witness of the Holy Spirit. It is this Living Word that is the center of everything we do in worship.

That worship follows the pattern we see in Isaiah 6 (page 597 of the Old Testament): adoration, confession, absolution, thanksgiving, and service. Overwhelmed by God's majesty and glory, we gather together in praise offered through song and prayer.

In the face of that great goodness of God, we also see how we fall short of being who we were created to be and so we join in a prayer of confession. We then proclaim the forgiveness that we know in Jesus Christ. We live our lives in this cycle of realizing where we fall short, being honest to God about that, and then recognizing that God always forgives us, even before the words are on our lips, and lets us start new.

As we listen for the Word of God, Scripture is read. The sermon is proclaimed. We respond to the Word with thanksgiving, joining in song and affirming our faith, using words from the Presbyterian Church (USA)'s Book of Confessions—whether it be the Apostles' Creed, a Brief Statement of Faith, or one of the other professions of faith—or words taken directly from Scripture.

Following Jesus' instruction to pray, in the Prayers of the People we bring human need before God in hope, trust, and thanksgiving for God's faithfulness, concluding with the Lord's Prayer. Our response of thanksgiving also includes the giving of our material goods, bringing to God the offerings of our work as symbols of our gratitude and our acknowledgment that everything we have comes from God. In prayer we dedicate these gifts and our lives to the work of the church and God's mission.

God then sends us, like Isaiah, back out into the world in service. Our final hymn of grateful praise moves directly into a charge and blessing to take what we have heard, to take what we have learned, and to actively live it out in the world, looking for God's work all around us.
