Come and praise him, come and praise the Lord.*

*Prayer of Praise

*Hymn 264 “At the Name of Jesus”

Prayer of Lenten Confession (unison)

O Lord, if you held our sin against us, who could live, who could stand?
We seem to have more faith in death than hope in your promise of life.
We seek peace through war and find security in weapons.
We look away from the hungry, sick, and dying and pretend not to care.
And even so, you love us; still there is forgiveness with you.
Therefore we worship you, for you alone, O Lord, can save us from death and make us whole again. Amen.

Responding to the Word

Hymn 274 “You, Lord, Are Both Lamb and Shepherd”

*Affirmation of Faith (unison) Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

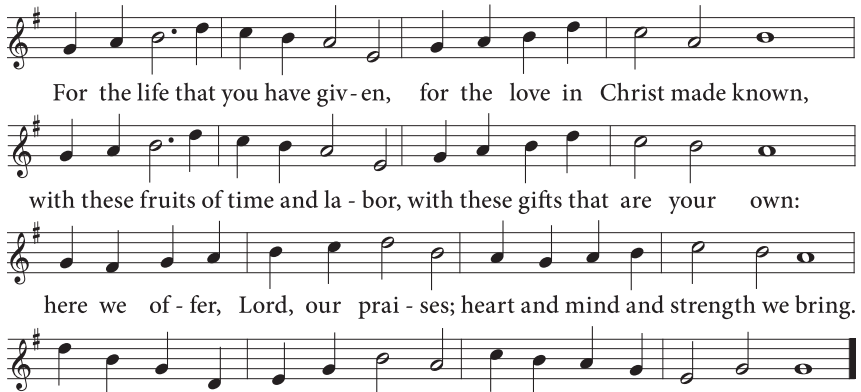

Commissioning of Mission Trip Participants (11:00)

Offertory Anthem

“I See His Blood upon the Rose”. Arthur Benjamin

*I see his blood upon the rose and, in the stars, the glory of his eyes.
His body gleams amid the eternal snows; his tears fall from the skies.
I see his face in every flower; the thunder and the singing of the birds are but his voice, and carven by his power rocks are his written words.
All pathways by his feet are worn; his strong heart stirs the ever-beating sea;
his crown of thorns is twined with every thorn; his cross is every tree.*

*Offertory Response

For the life that you have giv - en, for the love in Christ made known, with these fruits of time and la - bor, with these gifts that are your own:
here we of - fer, Lord, our prai - ses; heart and mind and strength we bring.
Give us grace to love and serve you, liv - ing what we pray and sing.

The Communion

Communion Anthem

"Cantique de Jean Racine" Gabriel Fauré

"The Lord Is My Shepherd" Howard Goodall

Psalm 23 (recited in unison after all have received the cup)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

*Prayer and Dedication of Our Homebound Elements (unison)

Gracious God, you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. As the bread and cup go out from this time of worship into times of worship at bedsides and in homes, we pray for those who will receive these elements of grace. May they also feel the way you tie us all together in you. May all of our love be your love reaching out into the life of the world. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord’s Supper at Fourth Church

Today Fourth Church celebrates the Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper. Communion is not just for Presbyterians or “members of the church.” All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, even those who doubt or whose trust is wavering, are invited to partake of the Lord’s Supper, in which we are assured of God’s love and grace.

This morning the congregation is served in the pews by Fourth Church elders and deacons. The congregation also takes on the role of serving: worshipers take the bread (which is gluten-free) and grape juice from the plate held by their neighbor, and then they take the plate and serve the neighbor on their other side.

Empty glasses are placed in the ringed holes in the pew racks.

Worship Notes

JUST AS WE LIT CANDLES on the Advent wreath to symbolize the light coming into the world through the birth of Christ, so now our extinguishing of candles points to the Lenten progression from light to darkness as we make our way to Good Friday and the crucifixion.

THE ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING OFFERING supports Chicago Lights Tutoring and Elam Davies Social Service Center; Fourth Church Meals Ministry; and the work of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, Hunger, and Self-Development of People Programs. To make a "One Great Hour of Sharing" gift, you can use the envelopes in the pew racks or write "Lenten Offering" on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.

PLAYING THE PRELUDE IS VIOLINIST IRINA CASASNOVAS JILOBOKOV, a student of the Music Institute of Chicago, which offers lessons each weekend in the Gratz Center.

THE BULLETIN COVER IMAGE depicts the cross in the wood paneling behind the three seats on the left side of the chancel. The cover quote is from "The Background Word" in Word Among Us.
