Sixth Sunday after Easter

Ecumenical dialogue is today anything but the specialty of a few starry-eyed religious peaceniks. For the first time in history it has now taken the character of an urgent desideratum for world politics... There will be no place among the peoples of this world without peace among the world religions.

There will be no peace among the world religions without peace among the Christian churches.

The community of the church is an integral part of the world community.

Peace is indivisible: it begins within us.

Psalm 23 (unison)

King James Version

(recited after all have received the cup)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Prayer After Communion

The text of "The Church's One Foundation" arose as a result of the Colenso dispute of 1866. This was a controversy in which John Colenso, Anglican Bishop of Natal, South Africa, made critical statements about the Bible and questioned aspects of the Christian faith. The curate of Windsor, Samuel John Stone (1839-1900) responded with this hymn of faith.

The child being baptized at the 6:30 p.m. service is Robert Stewart Barnard, son of Peter Sterling Barnard and Teressa Lynn Alexander.

- > FOR LARGE PRINT BULLETINS, SEE AN USHER.

People: But we turn aside to follow other gods. Forgive us, O God.

Leader: We commit ourselves to live in right relationship with people of other races, people who suffer injustice and those who have no power;

People: But we choose to break that relationship with racism, greed and a clinging to our own power. Forgive us, O God.

Leader: We pray for the oneness of your church.

Concerns of the Church

Psalter Psalm 47 (page 518, O.T.)

Anthem "Christ is Risen! Alleluia!" Frederick Marker

Christ is risen! Alleluia! Risen our victorious head! Sing his praises! Alleluia! Christ is risen from the dead! Gratefully our hearts adore him as his light once more appears; bowing down in joy before him, rising up from griefs and tears. All the sadness of our Lenten fast is over, through the open gates of gladness he returns to life once more; death and hell before him bending, see him rise the victor now, angels on his steps attending, glory 'round his wounded brow. Henceforth never death or hell shall us enthrall; be we Christ's, in him forever we have triumphed over all. All the doubting and dejection of our trembling hearts have ceased; 'tis the day of resurrection! Let us rise and keep the feast. Christ is risen! Alleluia!

*Affirmation of Faith

(unison)

Leader: Let us say what we believe.

People:

We believe in God who was there at the secret, quiet moments of conception, when the "self" that is in each of us was created. We believe in God who sang a mur mur song to us in the nurturing closeness of the womb; who watched with joy as we grew and moved and became strong and aware and ready for birth. We believe in God who called us on that first great journey into light, who breathed into us the breath of life; who speaks to us through our parents, our children, our friends, our enemies. Through Christ and the Holy Spirit, God calls us again and again to new adventures, new stairs to climb, new questions to ask, new people to love, new possibilities to live.

You, living Christ, our eyes behold, amid your Church appearing, all girt about your breast with gold and bright apparel wearing; Your countenance is burning light, a sun resplendent in its might: Lord Christ, we see your glory. Lord Christ, we see your glory. O risen Christ, today alive, amid your Church abiding, who now your blood and body give, new life and strength providing, we join in heavenly company to sing your praise triumphantly: Lord Christ, we see your glory, Lord Christ, we have seen your glory!
