The Day of Pentecost

She sits like a bird, brooding on the waters,
hovering on the chaos of the world's first day;
she sighs and she sings, mothering creation,
waiting to give birth to all the Word will say.

She dances in fire, startling her spectators,
waking tongues of ecstasy where dumbness reigned;
she weans and inspires all whose hearts are open,
nor can she be captured, silenced or restrained.

Minister: Friends, believe the good news.

*Affirmation of Faith (traditional)

We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life. The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor, and binds us together with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church. The same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed, claims us in the waters of baptism, feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation, and calls women and men to all ministries of the Church. In a broken and fearful world the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior, to unmask idolatries in Church and culture, to hear the voices of peoples long silenced, and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace.

from A Brief Statement of Faith (Presbyterian Church [U.S.A])

(9:30 and 11:00) Offertory Anthem “Come, Thou Holy Paraclete” David Hurd
Come, thou Holy Paraclete, and from thy celestial seat, send thy light and brilliancy. Father of the poor, draw near; giver of all gifts, be here; come, the soul’s true radiancy. Come, of comforters the best, of the soul the sweetest guest, come in toil refreshingly. Thou in labor, rest most sweet, thou art shadow from the heat, comfort in adversity. O thou Light, most pure and blest, shine within the inmost breast of thy faithful company. Where thou art not, we have nought; Every holy deed and thought come from thy Divinity. What is soiled, make thou pure, what is wounded, work its cure; what is parched, fructify; what is rigid gently bend, what is frozen warmly tend; Straighten what goes erringly. Fill thy faithful, who confide in thy power to guard and guide, with thy sevenfold mystery. Here thy grace and virtue send; grant salvation in the end, and in heaven felicity. Amen. Alleluia.

For the life that you have giv - en, for the love in Christ made known, here we of - fer, Lord, our prei - see; heart and mind and strength we bring.

Give us grace to love and serve you, liv - ing what we pray and sing.
