Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

FOURTH PRESBY TERIAN
CHURCH*A LIGHT IN THE CITY

The solution of mankind's most vexing problems will not be found in renouncing technical civilization, but in attaining some degree of independence from it," writes [Abraham Joshua] Heschel. Sabbath keeping teaches that independence. Refraining from work on a regular basis is a way of setting limits on behavior that is perilous for both human welfare and the welfare of the earth itself. Overworked Americans need rest, and they need to be reminded that they do not cause the grain to grow and that their greatest fulfillment does not come through the acquisition of material things. Moreover, the planet needs a rest from human plucking and burning and buying and selling. Perhaps, as Sabbath keepers, we will come to live and know these truths more fully and thus to bring their wisdom to the common solution of humanity's problems.

 People: so welcome is the Lord's love to those who have endured in trust and hope.

(unison)

O Christ, we share the strengths and the frailties of your first disciples. We share their devotion to you. We share their weaknesses: we do not fully trust in your power to heal and to save. Nor do we believe that we share in these gifts. We find your words cloaked in riddle and parable, your actions hard to understand. Yet, O Jesus, you love us marvelous: make a new sound to our God, for his mighty acts are great. With his right hand, he has won, by his holy arm won victory; his salvation is made known, his justice is plain for all to see. His mercy and faithfulness he has shown to Israel; the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

*Hymn 516 "Lord, We Have Come at Your Own Invitation"
Fred Pratt Green

*Affirmation of Faith (unison)

We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Offering

"Welcome, Obedient to Thy Word" Robert Leaf
 O God, unseen, yet ever near, thy presence may we feel; and thus, inspired with holy fear, before thine altar kneel.
