

The question is not: How many people take you seriously? How much are you going to accomplish? Can you show some results? But: Are you in love with Jesus? Perhaps another way of putting the question would be: Do you know the incarnate God? In our world of loneliness and despair, there is an enormous need for men and women who know the heart of God, a heart that forgives, that cares, that reaches out and wants to heal. In that heart there is no suspicion, no vindictiveness, no resentment, and not a tinge of hatred. It is a heart that wants only to give love and receive love in response. It is a heart that suffers immensely because it sees the magnitude of human pain and the great resistance to trusting the heart of God who wants to offer consolation and hope.

Awake, my heart, and render to God thy sure defender, thy maker, thy preserve, a song of love and fervor. Confirm my deeds and guide me: my day, with thee beside me, beginning, middle, ending, will all be upward tending. My heart shall be thy dwelling, with joy and gladness swelling; thy word my nurture, given to bring me on toward heaven.

(9:30 and 11:00) Anthem "Cantique de Jean Racine" Gabriel Fauré
O Redeemer divine, our sole hope of salvation, eternal light of the earth and the sky, we kneel in adoration. O Savior, turn on us thy loving eye! Send down on us the fire of thy grace all-consuming, whose wondrous might dispersed the powers of hell, and rouse our slumbering souls with thy radiance, that they may waken thy mercy to tell! O Christ, bestow thy blessing on us, we implore thee, who here are gathered on penitent knee; accept the hymns we chant to thine eternal glory and these thy gifts we return on to thee!

Hymn 372 “Lord, I Want to Be a Christian” African-American spiritual
Apostles’ Creed (traditional)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord’s Prayer

(unison)
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Response Maker in whom we live, in whom we are and move, the glory, power, and praise receive for thy creating love. Spirit of holiness, let all thy saints adore thy sacred energy and bless thine heart renewing grace.

Vespers Service

6:30 p.m.

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

Prelude Improvisation Aaron David Miller

Call to Worship

Leader: Sing praise to God and give thanks for God's mercies.
People: God is our refuge and strength, present with us to comfort and challenge us.
Leader: Let us set our minds upon the truth of God's word.
People: The truth of God's word is the truth of God's love. Thanks be to God.

Invocation

Hymn 483 "Sing Praise to God, Who Reigns Above"
Johann Jacob Schütz

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

God of our lives, in Jesus Christ you chose to enter into our humanity and to be with us in our joys and in our sorrows. Yet we often choose the more expedient way so as to avoid pain and the less difficult way so as to avoid its burden. We choose easy comfort for ourselves rather than the hard work of justice for all. Forgive us, merciful God, and strengthen us with courage to choose the mindset of Christ and the way of the cross as our purpose in life. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: The mercy of the Lord is great and freely given in abundance.
People: God's amazing grace is stronger than our guilt and shame.
Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Anthem "Behold, Now Praise the Lord" Thomas Matthews
Behold, now praise the Lord, ye servants of the Lord, behold. Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord, even in the house of the Lord our God. Lift up your hands in God's holy temple and praise the Lord. The Lord that made heaven and earth, give thee blessing out of Sion.

Communion Meditation

by John H. Boyle

WHAT'S ON YOUR MIND?

"Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." Mark 8:33 (NRSV)

Hymn 392 "Take Thou Our Minds, Dear Lord" William H. Foulkes

Affirmation of Faith (unison)
We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
