Second Sunday after Pentecost

Grace is one grand theological word that has not been spoiled ... people “say grace” before meals, acknowledging daily bread as a gift from God. We are grateful for kindness, gratified by good news, congratulated when successful, gracious in hosting friends. When service pleases us we leave a gratuity. In each of these there is a pang of childlike delight in the undeserved.

A composer may add grace notes to the score, not essential, they are gratuitous and add a flourish whose presence would be missed. When I attempt a Beethoven sonata I play it a few times without the grace notes. The sonata carries along, but oh what a difference it makes when I am able to add in the grace notes, which season the piece like savory spices.

THE FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CHICAGO

Morning Worship 8:00, 9:30, and 11:00

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

Prelude Chorale in B Minor César Franck

Introit Father of all, we bow to thee, who art in heaven adored. Yet seen on earth through all thy works, the universal Lord. For thine the power, the kingdom thine. All glory be to thee. Thine from eternity they were, and thine shall ever be.

Doxology and Invocation (The Hymnal, 592)

Hymn 457 "I Greet Thee, Who My Sure Redeemer Art" John Calvin

Prayer of Confession (unison)
Merciful God, you pardon all who truly repent and turn to you. We humbly confess our sins and ask your mercy. We have not loved you with a pure heart, nor have we loved our neighbor as ourselves. We have not done justice, loved kindness, or walked humbly with you, our God. Have mercy on us, O God, in your loving-kindness. In your great compassion, cleanse us from our sin. Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. Do not cast us from your presence, or take your Holy Spirit from us. Restore to us the joy of your salvation and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit.

Declaration of Pardon

Minister: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

God is good, his love never ends. He is always true to his word; he is faithful, age upon age.

(9:30 and 11:00) Anthem "Cantate Domino" Giuseppe Ottavio Pitoni
Sing to the Lord your God, O sing ye a new song. O praise him in the company of his saints. Let all the world be joyful in him that made all, and let all the people be joyful and sing to their king.

Hymn 280 “Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound” John Newton

Apostles’ Creed (traditional)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord’s Prayer

(unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Response Holy spirit, font of light, focus of God’s glory bright, shed on us a shining ray. Parent of the parentless, giver of gifts limitless. Come and touch our hearts today.

"Amazing Grace" was written by John Newton (1725-1807) who at the age of eleven went to sea with his father. By age seventeen he was in the British Royal Navy assigned to a man-of-war. After serving as a sailor on a slave ship, he became a captain, transporting Africans to port where they could be sold. In 1748 he was caught in a storm at sea and experienced a spiritual awakening. At age forty Newton was ordained in the Church of England despite his lack of formal education and in 1782 went to St. Mary Woonoth Church, London, where he remained the rest of his life.

Hymn 347 “Forgive our Sins as We Forgive” Rosamond E. Herklots

(unison)

We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Offering

Offertory Anthem

"The Cup of Blessing"

Malcolm Archer

The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a sharing of the blood of Christ? How shall I repay the Lord for all his benefits for me? I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Grievous in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful ones. In the courts of the house of the Lord, even in your midst, O Jerusalem, praise the Lord.
