Eighth Sunday After Pentecost

Prayer is no panacea, no substitute for action. It is, rather, like a beam thrown from a flashlight before us into the darkness. It is in this light that we who grope, stumble, and climb, discover where we stand, what surrounds us, and the course which we should choose. Prayer makes visible the right, and reveals what is hampering and false. In its radiance, we behold the worth of our efforts, the range of our hopes, and the meaning of our deeds.

Quest for God

THE FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CHICAGO

Morning Worship 8:00, 9:30, and 11:00

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

Prelude Prelude and Fugue in D Major Johann Sebastian Bach

Introit O Lord, increase my faith, strengthen me and confirm me in thy true faith; endue me with wisdom, charity, and patience; in all my adversity, teach me to say Amen.

Doxology and Invocation (The Hymnal, 592)

Hymn 491 "Stand Up and Bless the Lord" James Montgomery

Prayer of Confession (unison)

We confess, O God, that we struggle with ourselves; we allow our fears and inadequacies to keep us from caring for others whose lives are more fragile than our own; we speak of seeking peace with justice but are content with the peace of solitude and the injustice of silence, sometimes because we just cannot see how we might make a difference. Set us free from a past that we cannot change; open to us a future in which we can be changed; and grant us grace to grow more and more into your likeness. We pray through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Concerns of the Church

Psalter Psalm 138 (page 577, O.T.)

(8:00) Anthem "Thy Church, O God, Her Heart to Thee Upraiseth"
Eric Thiman

Thy church, O God, her heart to thee upraiseth; with her the nation bows before thy face: with high thanksgiving thee thy glad church praiseth; our strength thy spirit, our trust and hope thy grace. Unto great honor, glory undeserved, hast thou exalted us and drawn thee nigh. Nor, from thy judgments when our feet had swerved, did thou forsake nor leave us, Lord most high. Unto our minds give freedom and uprightness; let strength and courage lead over land and wave. To our souls' armor, grant celestial brightness, joy to our hearts, and faith beyond the grave. Our plenteous nation still in power extending, increase our joy, uphold us by thy word: beauty and wisdom all our ways attending, goodwill to all and peace through Christ our Lord.

(9:30 and 11:00) Anthem "Be Unto me, O Lord, a Tower of Strength" William Byrd
Be unto me, O Lord, a tower of strength against my mortal foe; O guard and ward me with thy power, which way so ever I shall go. Now shall my heart and soul rejoice, in God my Lord, with cheerful voice.

First Lesson Genesis 18:20-32 (page 14, O.T.)
Leader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Gloria Patri (The Hymnal, 579)
(9:30) Children are dismissed to Sunday school classes.

Second Lesson Luke 11:1-13 (page 72, N.T.)

Sermon by Fred Holper
WHY PRAY . . . THIS WAY?

Hymn 332 "Live Into Hope" Jane Parker Huber

Apostles' Creed (traditional)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

(unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Response By day, by night, at home, abroad still are we guided by our God. By his incessant bounty fed. By his unerring counsel led. Amen.

The text for this morning's sermon hymn, "Live Into Hope" was written by Jane Parker Huber (b. 1926) for the 1976 United Presbyterian Women's National Meeting at Purdue University. The team charged with planning worship wanted a hymn that had inclusive language and raised one's spirits, even in difficult times. With the preexisting tune "Truro" in mind, Huber wrote "Live Into Hope" the first of many hymn texts she would subsequently write.

Hymn 403 "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" Joseph Scriven

Affirmation of Faith

(unison)

We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Offering

Offertory Anthem

"O Jesus, I Have Promised"

Myron Casner

O Jesus, I have promised to serve thee to the end. Be thou forever near me, my master and my friend. I shall not fear the battle if thou art by my side, nor wander from the pathway if thou wilt be my guide. O let me hear thee speaking in accents clear and still, above the storms of passion, the murmurs of self-will. O speak to reassure me, to hasten or control. O speak, and make me listen, thou guardian of my soul. O Jesus, thou hast promised to all who follow thee, that where thou art in glory, there shall thy servant be. And, Jesus, I have promised to serve thee to the end. O give me grace to follow, my master and my friend. Amen.

ABOUT THE COVER

Fourth Presbyterian Church's stained-glass windows were designed by Charles Connick of Boston. Those on the north and south sides of the Sanctuary were made in the thirteenth-century manner known as grisaille.

SANCTUARY WINDOW UNDERGOING REPAIR

The west stained-glass window in the Sanctuary was removed this past week and taken to Bovard Studio for releading. The leading in the Sanctuary windows has been deteriorating over time, and earlier this year stained-glass consultants advised that the repair process not be delayed. Thus, the Board of Trustees authorized that repairs begin immediately. The west window, which is in the most critical condition, was selected as the first to be reled. It is anticipated that repairing this window will take from twelve to sixteen weeks, after which it will be reinstalled.

For more information about the efforts being made to preserve the historic Sanctuary windows, visit www.fourthchurch.org. Information about the windows can also be found in the brochure "The Architecture of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago" and on the bulletin board display in the Narthex.
