Ninth Sunday After Pentecost

God's feeding of his creatures is not a lesser act than creation or redemption. It is an enterprise of the same energy from which these movements flow. Creation is an onward event—there is the child that is being conceived at this moment, the rose that is opening, the melody that is wooing the composer. And redemption, though radiating through the specific event of the cross, is not tethered to the day of the nails and the wood—it was present in the great Passover and is expressed repeatedly unto our midst today by Word and Sacrament.

May we possess our possessions and not become possessed by them, since we know that whatever belongs to us comes from you in the first place. God our creator, help us to face up to ourselves, so that, as you move toward us in mercy, we may repent, turn to you, and receive forgiveness; through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Minister: Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit . . .

The Lord's Prayer (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

The Communion

Psalm 23 (unison) King James Version
(recited after all have received the cup)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

9:30: Carol J. Allen, Thomas C. Rook, and Donna Gray
11:00: Carol J. Allen, Thomas C. Rook, and Donna Gray

Duet: Betha Curtis, alto; Lisa Kirkpatrick, soprano
9:30: The Morning Choir
11:00: The Morning Choir
6:30: The Vespers Choir

The composer of this morning's prelude, Arvo Pärt (b. 1935), has written a great deal of sacred music. Annum per Annum (Year by Year), a bold work with extreme clarity of thought and yet a richness of ideas, is typical of this Estonian composer's style. The initial lettering of the prelude's movements represents portions of a Communion service: the Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei. The piece was written in 1980.

We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Offering

Offertory Anthem

“Darest Thou Now, O Soul” Ralph Vaughan Williams
Darest thou now, O soul, walk out with me toward the unknown region, where neither ground is for the feet nor any path to follow? No map there, nor guide, nor voice sounding, nor touch of human hand, nor face with blooming flesh, nor lips, nor eyes are in that land. I know it not, O soul, nor dost thou; all is a blank before us. All waits undreamed of in that region, that inaccessible land. Till when the ties loosen, all but the ties eternal. Time and space, nor darkness, gravitation, sense nor any bounds bounding us. Then we burst forth, we float, in time and space, O soul, prepared for them. Equal equipped at last, O joy, O fruit of all. Them to fulfill, O soul.
