Christ the King Sunday

A name is not,
cannot, must not be a label stuck
on persons or on things.

The name comes from within the things and persons and must on no account ring false.
It has to express

The essence of the essence,
the real reason for the being, the existence of the thing or person named.

Your name is and only can be Love.

Dom Helder Camara

Music Note: In his day, Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) was famous as an organ virtuoso but not highly regarded as a composer. Today's offertory anthem "Praise Him" is from Cantata 207, one of the 250 surviving cantatas Bach wrote while working at St. Thomas Church in Leipzig. Much of Bach's music has been lost, partly because fewer than a dozen of his works were published during his lifetime. On the manuscript copies that still exist one can frequently see Bach's inscription "SDG," which stands for "Soli Deo Gloria": to God alone be all glory.

He is head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn of the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything.
