

For he who kindled
The fire of the sun
He who draws out the tender leaves
From the dark twigs of winter . . .
Has also carved our names
In the palm of his hand.
And he became a child
The better to be near us.

Born in the winter-time
Born on a journey
to be our healing . . .
Our bread . . . the wine
At all our weddings

Prayer of Adoration and Confession

(unison)

Who are we, Lord God, that you should come to us? Yet you have visited your people and redeemed us in your Son. As we prepare to celebrate his birth, make our hearts leap for joy at the sound of your word, and move us by your Spirit to bless your wonderful works.

We confess, O God, that we have not expected his coming in our lives, and we have neither hoped nor worked for his coming in our world. In your great mercy, forgive us. Renew within us devotion to your kingdom, in acts of kindness, justice, peace, and mercy. We ask this through him whose coming is certain, whose day draws near, your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and resides with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.

All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Concerns of the Church

(8:00) Anthem “He Comes to Us as One Unknown” John Ferguson
He comes to us as one unknown, a breath unseen, unheard; as though within a heart of stone, or shriveled seed in darkness sown, a pulse of being stirred. He comes when souls in silence lie and thoughts of day depart; half seen upon the inward eye, a falling star across the sky of night within the heart. He comes to us in sound of seas, the ocean's fume and foam; yet small and still upon the breeze, a wind that stirs the tops of trees, a voice to call us home. He comes by flesh and blood and birth; to bear within our mortal frame a life, a death, a saving name, for every child of earth. He comes in truth when faith is grown; believed, obeyed, adored; the Christ in the Scriptures shown, as yet unseen, but not unknown, our Savior and our Lord.

Psalter Psalm 96 (responsively) (page 550, O.T.)

Gloria Patri (The Hymnal, 579)
(9:30 and 11:00) Children are dismissed to Sunday school classes.

Scripture Lessons Isaiah 7:10-16 (page 636, O.T.)
Matthew 1:18-25 (page 1, N.T.)
Leader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Sermon by John M. Buchanan
FAMILY CONNECTIONS
“Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel,’ which means ‘God is with us.’”
Matthew 1:23 (NRSV)

Hymn 53 “What Child Is This” William Chatterton Dix

Apostles' Creed (unison)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

(unison)
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Offering

(8:00) Offertory Solo “Cradle Song” Ned Rorem

(9:30 and 11:00) Cantata

Gloria

David Hurd

Gloria, in excelsis Deo. Lo, how a rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung, of Jesse's lineage coming as seers of old have sung. It came, a blossom bright, amid the cold of winter when half spent was the night. Isaiah 'twas foretold it, the rose I have in mind, with Mary we behold it, the virgin mother kind. To show God's love aright, she bore to us a savior, when half spent was the night. God rest you merry, gentlemen, let nothing you dismay. Remember Christ our savior was born on Christmas Day, to save us all from Satan's power when we were gone astray. O tidings of comfort and joy. From God our heavenly father a blessed angel came and unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same. How that in Bethlehem was born the Son of God by name. "Fear not," then said the angel, "let nothing you affright. Today is born a savior of a pure virgin bright, to free all those who trust in him from Satan's power and might." Now to the Lord sing to the Lord sing praises, all you within this place, and with true love and charity each other now embrace. This holy tide of Christmas doth bring redeeming grace. Angels we have heard on high, singing sweetly through the night, and the mountains in reply echoing their brave delight. Shepherds, why this jubilee? Why these songs of happy cheer? What great brightness did you see? What glad tidings did you hear? Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing. Come adore on bended knee Christ, the Lord, the newborn king.

Presentation of the Offering and Response

(unison)

For the life that you have given, for the love in Christ made known, with these fruits of time and labor, with these gifts that are your own: here we offer, Lord, our praises; heart and mind and strength we bring. Give us grace to love and serve you living what we pray and sing.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All: Eternal God, as you led your people in ages past, you direct our journey into the future. We give you thanks that you came to us in Jesus Christ, your love incarnate, your word made flesh. Startle us with your truth. Open our eyes to the generosity of your hand that we may share life and love in praise to you, God of all ages, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prelude Come Now, Jesus, Down from Heaven
Johann Sebastian Bach

Call to Worship and Invocation

Leader: Glory to you, Almighty God. You spoke and light came out of darkness, order rose from confusion.

People: Glory to you, Jesus Christ! You met us as a fragile child, the word made flesh, born in a forgotten place.

Leader: Glory to you, Holy Spirit! You brooded over chaos, mothering and shaping God's new creation.

Hymn 9 "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" Twelfth-century Latin

We confess, O living God, that when the light of Christ has burned brightest, we have sometimes found darkness more alluring; that though you have asked us to let your light shine, we have sometimes hidden it. Hymn 23 "Angels We Have Heard on High" French carol

*Affirmation of Faith (unison)

Jesus came into the world as a child; he was conceived by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary. Jesus Christ overthrew evil powers that enslaved and degraded people; he healed those who were sick in body and mind and lived among sinners as a servant. Through his birth, life, death, and resurrection, Jesus brings about the relationship between God and humanity that God always intended. We are certain that Christ is Lord and lives as God with us, touching all of human life with the presence of God. In Christ's majesty and humility, he is the eternal Son of God, God himself with us.

A Declaration of Faith, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Offering

Offertory Anthem

"Creator of the Stars of Night" Dale Wood
Creator of the stars of night, thy people's everlasting light, O Christ, thou savior of us all, we pray thee, hear us when we call. To thee the deep travail was known, that made the whole creation groan till thou, Redeemer, shouldst free thine own in glorious liberty. And when the world drew on toward night, thou camest not in splendor bright as monarch but the humble child of Mary, blameless mother mild. At thy great name of Jesus, now all knees must bend, all hearts must bow. And things celestial thee shall own, of things terrestrial, Lord alone. Come in thy holy might, we pray. Redeem us for eternal day, from every power of darkness, when thou judgest all the sons of men. To God the Father, God the Son, and God the Spirit, three in one, laud, honor, might, and glory be from age to age eternally. Amen.
