Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

All our works and our words, our play and creativity, has a goal. As artists of our lives we have a theme for our song, a motif for our painting, a point for our poem, a focus for our lives—the glory of God. For those who belong to God, the goal is glory.

O be joyful and enter with singing, ever praise him with voices ringing. Alleluia. Great is God whose name is wondrous; his great power is known among us. Give him worship due his name; spread abroad his glorious fame. Laud him, angels, with loud anthems soaring; join all people in praise adoring.

Merciful God, in your gracious presence we confess our sin and the sin of this world. Although Christ is among us as our peace, we are a people divided against ourselves as we cling to the values of a broken world. The profit and pleasures we pursue lay waste the land and pollute the seas. The fears and jealousies that we harbor set neighbor against neighbor and nation against nation. We abuse your good gifts of imagination and freedom, of intellect and reason, and have turned them into bonds of oppression. Lord, have mercy upon us; heal and forgive us. Set us free to serve you in the world as agents of your reconciling love in Jesus Christ. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

*Apostles’ Creed (unison)

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord’s Prayer

(unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Music Note: Chicago composer Frank Ferko wrote "Les carillons de la destinée et de l'éternité" in 1996. He describes the piece as beginning with "bells of grandeur and celebration. These are followed with rapid movement of les petites carillons, bells of joy ringing out from a high tower in the distance. Two-voice counterpoint constructed over the sound of a tolling bell provides the slow central section. After a brief return of les petites carillons, the original bells of grandeur return to conclude the composition."
