Palm Sunday

Years ago Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes said, “I wouldn’t give a fig for simplicity this side of complexity, but I would give my life for simplicity on the other side of complexity.” This longed-for simplicity on the other side of complexity reveals itself in care for one another and for the earth, and is the whole thrust of servant leadership. Grounded in love of the “Servant God” as the power that spins the stars, servant leadership is a life-giving simplicity within the world’s complexity.

Prayer of Adoration

(unison)

Lord Jesus Christ, when you entered Jerusalem, the people spread a carpet of palm branches before you and shouted “Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord.” On this Palm Sunday, we recall the shouts of glad hosanna with which the people greeted Jesus. They were looking for a wearer of purple, but he traded the robes of royalty for the garment of a servant. Let these branches be signs of his victory, and grant that we who carry them may follow him in the way of the cross, that, dying and rising with him, we may enter into your household; through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

(9:30 and 11:30) Children are dismissed to Sunday school classes

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

Lord Jesus, on this glad day, we sing your praises and join the parade that hails you as king. Even so, we confess that the lives we live do not always reflect our professed allegiance. Often we proclaim hope, but live in fear. Often our faith fades when confronted by the realities of life. Often we miss the meaning of the parade that heralds you as Messiah. Forgive us, Lord, for we know not what we do. In your great compassion, cleanse us from our sin and sustain us with your bountiful spirit. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. The text of today's opening hymn, "All Glory, Laud, and Honor," was written by Theodulph of Orleans around the year 820 to be used as a Palm Sunday processional hymn. Born around 750 or 760 in Spain or Italy, Theodulph of Orleans was in a monastery at Florence when discovered by Charlemagne and brought to France in 781 and made Abbot of Fleury and Bishop of Orleans. He was later imprisoned for conspiring against King Louis the Pious. Although legend has it that Theodulph was freed when the king passed the prison and heard him singing this hymn, it is more probable that Theodulph died in prison in 821.

We are called to be the church: to celebrate God’s presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope.
