

The resurrection is God's way of revealing to us that nothing that belongs to God will ever go to waste. What belongs to God will never get lost. . . . The resurrection doesn't answer any of our common questions about life after death such as "How will it be? How will it look?"

But it does reveal to us that love is stronger than death. God's love for us, our love for each other, and our love for those who lived before and who will live after us is not just a quickly passing experience, but a reality transcending all time and space.

Prayer for Easter Day

Leader: O Christ, in your resurrection the heavens and the earth rejoice.
People: Alleluia!
Leader: O Christ, by your resurrection you broke open the gates of hell and destroyed sin and death.
People: Alleluia!
Leader: O Christ, by your resurrection you have brought us from death to life.
People: Guide us in the way of eternal life.
Leader: O Christ, by your resurrection you brought salvation to the whole world.
People: Now give us courage to live as your new creation.
All: God of mercy, we no longer look for Jesus among the dead, for he is alive and has become the Lord of life. Increase in our minds and hearts the risen life we share with Christ, and help us grow as your people toward the fullness of eternal life with you, through Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer of Confession

(unison)
Almighty God, in raising Jesus from the grave, you shattered the power of sin and death. We confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear, bound by the ways that lead to death. We overlook the poor and the hungry and pass by those who mourn; we are deaf to the cries of the oppressed and indifferent to calls for peace; we despise the weak and abuse the earth you made. Forgive us, God of mercy. Help us to trust your power to change our lives and make us new, that we may know the joy of life abundant given in Jesus Christ, the risen Lord. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All: Eternal God, we praise you that your glory has dawned on us and brought us into this Day of Resurrection. We rejoice that the grave could not hold your Son and that he has conquered death, risen to rule over all powers of this earth. We praise you that he summons us into new life, to follow him with joy and gladness. By your Spirit, lift us from doubt and despair, and set our feet in Christ's holy way, that our lives may be signs of his life and all we have may show forth his love. Praise, glory, and thanksgiving to you, our God, forever and ever. Amen.

To depict the amazement and joy surrounding the resurrection, Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) used several musical devices in "The Holy Christ Has Arisen," played this morning as part of the prelude. The flowing musical lines portray the stone being rolled away at Jesus' grave, and the leaps heard in the pedal part represent Jesus leaping out of the grave. This chorale prelude is from the collection Das Orgelbüchlein (The Little Organ Book), written between 1713 and 1717.
