Have mercy upon us, O God, and grant us a right patriotism that seeks the good for our nation and for all the nations of the earth. Show us anew that there is no love or liberty apart from you. As you have led us in the past, lead us now, and make us brave to seek your will in all things, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Music Note: The banners and pulpit parament celebrate Ordinary Time, the season of the church year that falls between Epiphany and Lent and between Pentecost and Advent. These hangings, created by Laurie Wohl, are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the "ordinary" as we make our faith journey day to day.

This morning's offertory anthem, "O Light, from Age to Age the Same," was written by Leo Sowerby in 1936 to honor the 65th anniversary of the founding of Fourth Church. Sowerby (1895-1968), who also wrote this morning's prelude and first anthem, was one of America's most influential church musicians and was twice the Associate Organist of Fourth Church. He began at Fourth Church in May of 1921 but left in December of that year after becoming the first American to win the Prix de Rome, which allowed him to study music in Rome for three years. After returning to Chicago in 1924, he again became Associate Organist at Fourth Church until in 1926 he went to St. James Church (now Cathedral) just a few blocks away.

Dear God, you poured out your Spirit upon gathered disciples, creating bold tongues, open ears, and a new community of faith. We confess that we hold back the force of your Spirit among us. We do not listen for your word of grace, speak the good news of your love, or live as a people made one in Christ. Have mercy on us, O God. Transform our timidity by the power of your Spirit, and fill us with a fierce desire to be your faithful people, doing your will for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Matthew 5:5 (NRSV)

*Hymn 509 “For the Bread Which You Have Broken”
Tune: CROSS OF JESUS

*Affirmation of Faith (unison)

We are not alone, we live in God’s world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the church: to celebrate God’s presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Offering

Offertory Anthem

“Thee We Adore” T. Frederick H. Candlyn
Thee we adore, O hidden Savior, thee, who in thy sacrament art pleased to be; both flesh and spirit in thy presence fail. Yet here thy presence we devoutly hail. O blest memorial of our dying Lord, who living bread to all doth here afford! O may our souls forever feed on thee, and thou, O Christ, forever be. Jesu, Lord and God, Fountain of goodness, cleanse us, unclean, in thy most cleansing flood; Increase our faith and love, that we may know the hope and peace which from thy presence flow. Christ, whom now beneath a veil we see, may what we thirst for soon our portion be, to gaze on thee unveiled, and see thy face, the vision of thy glory and thy grace.
