Twentieth Sunday After Pentecost

The church in its own life is called to practice the forgiveness of enemies and to commend to the nations as practical politics the search for cooperation and peace. This search requires that nations pursue fresh and responsible relations across every line of conflict, even at risk to national security, to reduce areas of strife and to broaden international understanding.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large print bulletins and Bibles and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary.

Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church

Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship.

We invite you to stop by Coffee Hour after worship for fellowship, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

A church tour begins at 12:15 p.m., starting at the back of the sanctuary.

Inquirers' Class offers an opportunity to explore Presbyterian history and beliefs. This one-session class is also a prerequisite for membership. Attend on Monday, October 7 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.; Saturday, October 19 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon; or Sunday, October 27 from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. Registration is not necessary. For information about membership, contact Don Allerton at ext. 221 (dallerton@fourthchurch.org).

Other Worship and Prayer Opportunities at Fourth Church

Special prayer requests are included in intercessory prayer in Stone Chapel on Sundays. Individuals can leave their prayer requests written on paper in the box outside the chapel or they can pray together with the Deacon who is in Stone Chapel after 11:00 worship.

Morning prayer is held each weekday morning at 9:00 a.m. in Blair Chapel.

A prayer service in the style of Taizé is held the fourth Friday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in Blair Chapel.

Daily devotions, written by the staff, are available in the literature racks and by e-mail from devotions@fourthchurch.org.

Today's sermon will be available online at www.fourthchurch.org by this Friday.

For a preview of next Sunday's worship, subscribe to the weekly e-mail newsletter News@FourthChurch by sending e-mail addresses to news@fourthchurch.org.

Fourth Church Cares

For pastoral care; to notify the church of illnesses, death, hospitalizations; or to pass along a prayer request to be remembered in Morning Prayer, contact Carol Allen, Associate Pastor for Congregational Care, at ext. 292 (callen@fourthchurch.org).

The Lorene Replogle Counseling Center, a ministry of Fourth Church, offers support groups as well as individual, couples', and premarital counseling. Information about the Center is available in the literature racks or by calling (312) 787-8425.

Births, adoptions, and baptisms: To notify the church of births and adoptions or for information about baptisms, contact Donna Gray, Interim Associate Pastor for Children and Family Ministry, at ext. 291 (dgray@fourthchurch.org). Be sure to reserve baptism dates well in advance, as dates fill quickly.

MORNING WORSHIP 8:00, 9:30, and 11:00

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

(8:00) Prelude	Gaitilla de mano izquierda (Dance for the left hand) Sebastián Durón
(9:30 and 11:00) Prelude	Allegro João de Sousa Carvalho Gaitilla de mano izquierda Sebastián Durón Sonata para Cimbalo Fr. Manuel de Santa Elias
Introit	"O Taste and See" Ralph Vaughan Williams
*Doxology and Invocation	(The Hymnal, 592)
*Hymn 289	"O God of Every Nation" Tune: LLANGLOFFAN
Prayer of Confession	(unison) Merciful God, in your gracious presence we confess our sin and the sin of this world. Although Christ is among us as our peace, we are a people divided against ourselves as we cling to the values of a broken world. The profit and pleasures we pursue lay waste the land and pollute the seas. The fears and jealousies that we harbor set neighbor against neighbor and nation against nation. We abuse your good gifts of imagination and freedom, of intellect and reason, and have turned them into bonds of oppression. Lord, have mercy upon us; heal and forgive us. Set us free to serve you in the world as agents of your reconciling love in Jesus Christ. Amen.
Declaration of Pardon
Leader:	Friends, believe the good news.
All:	In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.
Concerns of the Church
(8:00) Anthem	"Jesu dulcis memoria" Tomás Luis de Victoria Jesu, the very thought is sweet, in that dear name all heart joys meet. But sweeter than the honey far the glimpses of his presence are.
Psalter	Psalms 133 (responsively) (page 575, O.T.)
*Gloria Patri	(The Hymnal, 579) (9:30 and 11:00) Children are dismissed to Sunday School classes.
Scripture Lesson	Ephesians 1:3-10 (page 192, N.T.)
Leader:	The Word of the Lord.
People:	Thanks be to God.
(8:00) Sermon	by John H. Boyle
	TAKING COMMUNION

*Stand as you are able.

(9:30 and 11:00) Sermon by John M. Buchanan

THE GATHERING

Invitation

Great Thanksgiving

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Prayer

Minister: It is truly right and our greatest joy . . .
. . . who forever sing to the glory of your name:

Music: John W.W. Sherer; © 1997. Used by permission.

Minister: You are holy, O God of majesty . . .
. . . dedicated to your service.

Minister: Great is the mystery of faith:

People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Communion

(9:30 and 11:00) Communion Anthem

"Jesu dulcis memoria"

Tomás Luis de Victoria

Psalm 23

(unison; recited after all have received the cup)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Prayer After Communion (unison)

Eternal God, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his body and blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Call to Worship and Invocation

Hymn 275 “God of Our Life” Tune: SANDON

Prayer of Confession (unison)
Loving God, we ask forgiveness when we lose courage and leave the sorrowing without comfort, the fearful without hope, victims of any trouble without aid. We ask you to help us in these times, that your love may empower and restore us to a love that is forthright and passionately concerned for all your creatures. Help us to love in visible ways in a world that urgently needs love in action. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Affirmation of Faith (unison)
We are not alone, we live in God’s world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the church: to celebrate God’s presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone.
Thanks be to God.

The Communion

Prayer After Communion (unison)
God of tender mercy, in your Spirit all the earth’s children find welcome, shelter, and peace. Even if we journey to the far ends of the earth, we find your Spirit embracing us, offering a home of compassion and rest.
We thank you for the Spirit, who brings to remembrance the words of Jesus our Lord; who leads us to recall your acts of mercy when we are in distress; who teaches us and guides us as surely as if Christ were beside us in the flesh. Like a wise and loving friend, we know that with your affirmation we may always dwell secure. You hallow the earth and all moments, O God, making all time and space our home as well. Thank you for permeating our world, for coming to us in the bread, the cup, the conversation around your holy table, so that we may trust and believe in your love. Amen.

Worship Notes

Fourth Church had hoped to welcome Hector Mendez as guest preacher at 9:30 and 11:00 worship today but regrets that he was unable to be with us because of visa difficulties. Hector Mendez is pastor at First Presbyterian Church in Havana, Cuba, and serves on the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches. He has hosted several mission groups traveling to First Presbyterian Church from Fourth Church. One of those groups was in Havana on World Communion Sunday last year, when John Buchanan preached at First Presbyterian.

The Prayer After Communion at this evening's service is from All the Seasons of Mercy by Diane Karay.

During the closing hymn of 9:30 and 11:00 worship, the choir and clergy will leave the chancel area, symbolically putting into action what all are called to do following the corporate worship of God: to go out into the world to love and serve the Lord.

Peacemaking Offering to Promote Peace, Justice, and Reconciliation

Today Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) congregations throughout the country are receiving the Peacemaking Offering. Gifts to this offering will help break the cycle of poverty by enhancing educational opportunities for underserved populations. They will also support the ministry of Cuban churches, including the First Presbyterian Church of Havana, the Presbytery of Havana, and seminary education at Matanzas Evangelical Theological Seminary in Cuba. To make a gift to this offering, use an envelope from the pew racks or write "Peacemaking Offering" on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.

THE LORD'S SUPPER

FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"Do this in remembrance of me." Luke 14: 19 (NRSV)

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper (also called Communion) is an occasion for the family of faith to gather around a common table and share symbolically a time of eating and drinking in communion with the crucified and risen Lord. In this act, we remember that during his earthly ministry, Jesus shared meals with his followers and sat at dinner tables as a sign of acceptance of the sinner and the outcast. In the last meal before his death, Jesus shared with his disciples bread and wine, speaking of these elements as his body and blood, symbols of the new relationship with God brought about by his impending death. On the day of his resurrection, the risen Jesus made himself known to his followers in the breaking of bread.

In the act of remembering that is the Lord's Supper, we receive and trust the love of Christ present to us and to the world. Through this symbolic meal, we are renewed and empowered to be the church, the body of Christ, in the world.

The invitation to the Lord's Supper is not just for Presbyterians or "members of the church." All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to partake of the Lord's Supper. Access to the Table is not a right conferred upon the worthy but a privilege given to the undeserving who come in faith, repentance, and love. Even one who doubts or whose trust is wavering may receive the bread and grape juice (in place of wine) in order to be assured of God's love and grace in Jesus Christ.

At our morning communion services, the congregation is served in the pews by elders and deacons in an act symbolizing their role as servant leaders in the church. The congregation also takes on the role of servers as worshipers pass the trays of bread and grape juice to those seated beside them. The congregation partakes of the elements as they are served. Empty glasses are placed in the ringed holes in the pew racks.

Fourth Presbyterian Church celebrates the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper each Sunday at evening worship and at morning worship on the first Sunday of even-numbered months.
