

October 13, 2002 Twenty-First Sunday After Pentecost

We mostly spend [our] lives conjugating three verbs: to want, to have, to do. Craving, clutching, and fussing on the material, political, social, emotional, intellectual—even on the religious—plan, we are kept in perpetual unrest: forgetting that none of these verbs has any ultimate significance, except so far as they are transcended by, and included in, the fundamental verb to be, and that being, not wanting, having, and doing, is the essence of a spiritual life.

*Apostles' Creed (unison)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. “Though I Speak with the Tongues of Men and of Angels” Dave Brubeck
Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not love, I am become as sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing without love. And though I bestow goods to feed the poor and though I give my body to be burned, I am nothing without love. Love suffereth long; love is kind. Love envieth not; it is not rude. Love is never evil; love is kind but rejoices in truth; love is truth. Love beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Love never fails, but prophecies fail; knowledge will vanish away, but when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

VESPERS SERVICE

6:30 p.m.

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

Prelude Deck Yourself, My Soul with Gladness
Johann Sebastian Bach

Call to Worship All rhythms of time beat in God's great heart;
the time to be born and the time to die,
the time to plant and the time to harvest,
the time to laugh and the time to weep.
All seasons of life are beautiful in their time,
all seasons provide occasions for God's great mercy.
Let us worship God.

Prayer of Invocation

*Hymn 285 "God, You Spin the Whirling Planets"
Tune: AUSTRIAN HYMN

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

Loving God, in mystery and grace you sustain us.
In love undiminished by generations of people and centuries of time, you care for us as deeply as those who strained to hear Jesus' gracious words and who yearned for his healing touch. Forgive us, for we are slow to trust in your love, unchanged by all history.
We have not claimed the ancient story of your love as our own. If we do not see ourselves as the blind, the broken, and the lost, neither can we see ourselves as those whom Jesus found, healed, and claimed as disciples. Have mercy upon us, O God. And make known to us your love in the eternal Jesus Christ
our Lord. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Stewardship Season Begins at Fourth Church

October is stewardship season at Fourth Church, a time when we celebrate the individual and collective gifts that together support the operations, mission, and ministry of the congregation. The Stewardship Committee asks that you please submit your 2003 pledge by Sunday, October 27, either by placing a card in the offering plate or by mailing it to the church. It is these pledges that enable Fourth Church to faithfully plan and carry out programs, mission outreach, and ministry for the year ahead. ## BAPTISM AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

*“Let the little children come to me . . .
for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs.”
Matthew 19:14 (NRSV)*

On the second Sunday of each month, Fourth Church includes the Sacrament of Baptism in morning worship. Baptism is the sign and seal of God’s grace and covenant in Christ. As The Book of Order of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) explains, baptism signifies the faithfulness of God, the washing away of sin, rebirth, putting on the fresh garment of Christ, and adoption into the covenant family of the church.

The baptism of children witnesses to the truth that God’s love claims people before they are able to respond in faith. The congregation, on behalf of the whole church, assumes responsibility for nurturing the baptized children in the Christian life, and it is for this reason that the congregation makes such a promise during the service.

In the unison prayer we also remember that we too were baptized and as children of God are part of the worldwide family of faith.

Children being baptized at the 9:30 worship service are

Emma Christine Morley, daughter of Ned Morley and Pamela Crowell
