

October 20, 2002 Twenty-Second Sunday After Pentecost

When I look back on my life nowadays, which I sometimes do, what strikes me most forcibly about it is that what seemed at the time most significant and seductive, seems now most futile and absurd. For instance, success in all of its various guises, being known and being praised, ostensible pleasures, like acquiring money . . . going to and fro in the world and up and down it like Satan. . . .

In retrospect all these exercises in self-gratification seem pure fantasy, what Pascal called “licking the earth.” They are diversions designed to distract our attention from the true purpose of our existence in this world, which is, quite simply, to look for God, and, in looking, to find him, and having found him, to love him, thereby establishing a harmonious relationship with his purposes for his creation.

Minute for Stewardship

(8:00) Anthem “King of Glory, King of Peace” David Charles Walker
arr. Robert Brewer

King of glory, King of peace, I will love thee; and that love may never cease, I will move thee. Thou has granted my request, thou hast heard me; thou didst note my working breast, thou hast spared me. Wherefore with my utmost art, I will sing thee; and the cream of all my heart, I will bring thee. Though my sins against me cried, thou didst clear me; and alone, when they replied, thou didst hear me. Seven whole days, not one in seven, I will praise thee; in my heart, though not in heaven, I can raise thee. Small it is in this poor sort to enroll thee; even eternity’s too short to extol thee.

Hymn 428 “We Give Thee but Thine Own” Tune: SCHUMANN

Apostles’ Creed (unison) (The Hymnal, page 14)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord’s Prayer (unison)
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in we create idols. You sent Christ as a witness that you will not forsake us, yet we fret over matters as though the future. Have mercy upon us when we ignore your grace. We are your people; help us to dwell in your

Worship Notes

Today's Minute for Stewardship is presented by Marc Miller on behalf of the Stewardship Committee.

The stewardship banners hanging in the sanctuary will be revealed as member pledges are received, indicating our communal pledge to be a light in the city through the mission and ministries of Fourth Church. These cityscape banners were designed for the Stewardship 2003 campaign by California-based liturgical artist Nancy Chinn.

The bulletin cover art represents in word and image the theme of the Stewardship 2003 campaign: "Every generous act of giving is from above" (James 1:17).

Tower Brass, Fourth Church's brass octet, assists in the 9:30 and 11:00 worship services each third Sunday of the month between September and May.

The doxology "Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow" was originally composed by Louis Bourgeois (c.1510-c.1561), whose major contributions to church music were his adaptations and compositions of metrical psalms to be sung by all people.

Stewardship 2003

October is stewardship season at Fourth Church, a time when we celebrate the individual and collective gifts that together support the operations, mission, and ministry of the congregation. It is during this month that the Stewardship Committee asks you to offer your pledge for 2003.

Your generosity helps Fourth Presbyterian Church meet its needs.

- ◆ Our annual operating budget for 2003 will be $7.5 million. Our endowment proceeds can provide for only 40 percent of that budget. Another 40 percent must come from member pledges and gifts. (The remaining 20 percent comes from program fees.)
- ◆ Fifty percent of your gifts support our ministries of Christian worship, education, and evangelism.
- ◆ In addition, your pledges and gifts support our mission programs, such as the Center for Older Adults, the Elam Davies Social Service Center, the Center for Whole Life, the Tutoring Program, and the Lorene Replogle Counseling Center.

Why pledge?

- ◆ A pledge reflects the need to put God first, that God's mission and kingdom are vital to our lives.
- ◆ Pledging enables Fourth Presbyterian Church to plan its income for the upcoming year. It allows us to guarantee funding for existing programs as well as to generate new ones.
- ◆ Pledges are estimates, not contracts. Pledges are personal commitments that flow out of our love for Christ. If a pledge is made and circumstances change, please contact the office of Giving Ministries.

Please prayerfully consider your pledge for 2003, indicate your intentions on a pledge card, and return the card by Sunday, October 27. Every gift, be it small or large, is appreciated!

Pledge cards are available in the pew racks, literature racks, and online at www.fourthchurch.org. For more information about stewardship and pledging, contact Pat Quinn, Director of Giving Ministries, at ext. 490 (pquinn@fourthchurch.org).
