

The world is full of people who have attained what they wanted and are neither happy nor satisfied. Mere competence, or even excellence, in a chosen field of endeavor is an insufficient basis for success, for they do not take into account questions of worth, value, or merit. In short they fail the test of goodness, and certainly success cannot be said to be gained without some sense of the good of the thing at which one is successful. Thus, the mere making of money, or the gaining of power and influence, may be regarded as accomplishments, but whether the one who has gained these accomplishments can be regarded as successful in the moral sense is another matter.

Minute for Stewardship

Psalter Psalm 90 (responsively) (page 547, O.T.)

Anthem "O How Amiable" Ralph Vaughan Williams
O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts!
My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord. My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her anhouse, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young;
even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.
Blessed are they that dwell in thy house. They will be always praising thee. The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us; prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handiwork. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

First Lesson 1 Thessalonians 2:1-8 (page 203, N.T.)
Leader: The Word of the Lord.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord’s Prayer (unison)

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is

Worship Notes

Reformation Sunday is the traditional designation for the last Sunday in October, a day to celebrate the rich heritage in the Protestant tradition and to remember and give thanks for those who have kept the faith.

Today's Minute for Stewardship is presented by Linda Crane and Gerry Bloomer (8:00 and 9:30) and Bob and Lisa Doak (11:00).

The stewardship banners hanging in the sanctuary will be revealed as member pledges are received, indicating our communal pledge to be a light in the city through the mission and ministries of Fourth Church. These cityscape banners were designed for the Stewardship 2003 campaign by California-based liturgical artist Nancy Chinn.

The bulletin cover art represents in word and image the theme of the Stewardship 2003 campaign: "Every generous act of giving is from above" (James 1:17).

Observing All Saints' Sunday

Next Sunday, November 3, is All Saints' Sunday, a day when we remember the faithful who have gone before us and honor departed loved ones. As part of that observance, the names of all Fourth Church members who have joined the church triumphant in 2002 will be read during morning worship. During evening worship, the Morning Choir will sing Lux Aeterna ("Light Eternal"), a piece that opens and closes with the beginning and ending of the Requiem Mass and draws its texts from sacred Latin sources, each containing references to light.

Stewardship 2003

“The greatest lesson a soul has to learn is that God and God alone is enough for all our needs. This is the lesson that all God’s dealings with us are meant to teach and this is the crowning discovery of the Christian life. God is enough!”

—Hannah Whitall Smith

There are three conversions necessary for the Christian life:
the conversion of the heart, the mind, and the purse.

—Martin Luther

If you have any encouragement from being united in Christ,
if any comfort from his love,
if any fellowship with the Spirit,
if any tenderness and compassion,
then make my joy complete by being like-minded,
having the same love and
being one in spirit and purpose.

—Philippians 2:1-2 (NIV)

Every Generous Act of Giving Is from Above

For the Christian believer, stewardship is much more than a fund-raising program that occurs once every twelve months. Rather stewardship is a way of life, a lifelong spiritual discipline that reveals our confident dependence on God's abundance. It is this underlying belief in God that moves us as a faith community to engage in the works of God that promote kingdom values: to love the unlovely, to include the excluded, to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to befriend the lonely, and to show hospitality to all. By our confidence in God's abundance, we as a Christian community generously support the works of this congregation through our gifts and pledges.

Did you know that only one quarter of the membership of Fourth Presbyterian Church makes a pledge each year? Our membership is growing at an astounding rate with approximately thirty new members joining each month, yet our number of pledges remains at one quarter.

If you have never pledged before, will you prayerfully consider pledging for the upcoming year? If you at one time pledged and no longer do, please reconsider making a pledge commitment. Now, more than ever before, your gifts are needed to fund our worship, music, outreach, education, and hospitality. Any pledge, no matter the size, is valuable. I urge you to trust in God and in God's abundance in your own lives and to live out that trust by making a commitment to your faith family, so that together we may continue to be a strong light in the city.

Patrick T. Quinn
Director of Giving Ministries

To date, 129 pledges have been received, totaling $655,342. Thank you to all who have pledged. For those who have not yet pledged, pledge cards are available in the pew racks and literature racks and online at www.fourthchurch.org. (The form can be downloaded from the web site or completed online.) For more information about stewardship and pledging, contact Patrick Quinn, Director of Giving Ministries, at ext. 490 (pquinn@fourthchurch.org).
