Third Sunday After Epiphany

If I develop one gift, it means that other gifts will not be used. Doors will close on a million lovely possibilities. I will become a painter or a doctor only if denial becomes a part of my picture of reality. Commitment at the point of my gifts means that I must give up being a straddler. Somewhere in the deeps of me I know this. . . . My commitment will give me an identity. When asked who I am, I will be reminded that the answer lies in the exercising of my gifts.

(The choir sings the following verses; the congregation sings the refrain "Lord, you have searched me; you know me through and through" when (R) appears at the end of a verse.)

Lord, you have searched me; you know me through and through.

You know when I rise up; you know when I rest; you read my thoughts from far away. You watch over each step; you know when I sleep; you are acquainted with all my ways. (R)

Even before a word is on my lips, you know what is in my heart. You are before me and behind me and all around me; you lay your hand upon me. (R)

Where shall I go from your spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there; you are in the depths of the sea. (R)

If I could fly to the morning sun or dwell near the farthest sea, even there I would be guided by your hand; your right hand would hold me fast. (R)

Prelude O Morning Star, How Fair and Bright
Dieterich Buxtehude

Call to Worship

Leader: We come here to find ourselves because it is so easy to get lost in the world.

(unison)

God of life, grant us your forgiveness now, for we have at best been half-hearted in following you. We have been heedless in our thoughts, cruel in our words, and shameless in our actions. We are often indifferent to a world made sad by want and wastefulness. We pass by on the other side of human need on our way to indulging our own desires. We wander from the way that leads to peace, following paths of our own pleasing. God of life, grant us your forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God. (United Church of Canada)

Worship Notes

Today's Minute for Mission during 9:30 and 11:00 worship is presented by the youth of Fourth Church on behalf of the Souper Bowl of Caring (see below).

The psalm response used in this morning's worship is by Hal H. Hopson, copyright 1989 Hope Publishing Company, Carol Stream, IL 60188. All rights reserved. Used by permission.

The cityscape banners, designed by Nancy Chinn for the Stewardship 2003 campaign, are revealed as member pledges are received, indicating our communal pledge to be a light in the city through the mission and ministries of Fourth Church.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, Unweavings created by Laurie Wohl, are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the "ordinary" as we make our faith journey day to day. More information about these hangings is available in the literature racks.

The Souper Bowl of Caring Needs Your Support

Thousands of people worldwide are putting God's love into action today as part of the annual Souper Bowl of Caring. Fourth Church youth will be outside the sanctuary doors after worship to receive cans of soup and monetary donations toward their goal of collecting the equivalent of 1200 cans of soup. They will distribute these to the Elam Davies Social Service Center and the St. Vincent DePaul Parish Homeless Outreach and Pantry Program. Please join them in this effort to help the needy by making your contribution today. For more information about the Souper Bowl, which last year collected $3.1 million to serve the hungry and impoverished, visit www.souperbowl.org/
