

I am a Christian because and to the degree that I believe in this Christ, and I try practically to emulate him, and I take him as the guide for my path in life. Hence, he is for us, the way, the truth, and the life. But this also means that Christians do not believe in Christianity. As a religion, with its dogmatics, its liturgy, and discipline, like every other religion it is a highly ambivalent historical phenomenon. . . . It is therefore intolerable to define Christianity as the absolute religion. . . . No, the only Absolute in the world is the Absolute itself. . . . That is why Christians do not believe in Christianity but in the one God, who sent this person, Jesus, as his Christ, his anointed envoy.

The Lord's Prayer (unison)
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

The Communion

Communion Anthem "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" *Ancient Irish melody
arr. Edward Bairstow*

Psalm 23 (recited in unison after all have received the cup)
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Prayer After Communion (unison)
Gracious God, you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. You have fed us with the bread of life and renewed us for your service. Help us, who have shared Christ's body and received his cup, to be his faithful disciples, so that our daily living may be part of the life of your kingdom, and our love
be your love reaching out into the life of the world;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Worship Notes

The composer of the prelude "Choral in A Minor," César Franck (1822-1890), was organist at Sainte Clotilde in Paris from 1858 until 1890. The magnificent organ at that church has many symphonic colors or tonal qualities, which influenced Franck's style of writing for the organ. They are demonstrated particularly well in "Choral in A Minor," the last piece Franck composed.

The cityscape banners, designed for the Stewardship 2003 campaign by Nancy Chinn, are revealed as member pledges are received, indicating our communal pledge to be a light in the city through the mission and ministries of Fourth Church.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, Unweavings created by Laurie Wohl, are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the "ordinary" as we make our faith journey day to day. More information about these hangings is available in the literature racks.

Congregational Meeting Next Sunday

THE LORD'S SUPPER AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"Do this in remembrance of me." Luke 14:19 (NRSV)

The Lord's Supper is the sign and seal of eating and drinking in communion with the crucified and risen Lord. In this act, we remember that during his earthly ministry, Jesus shared meals with his followers and sat at dinner tables as a sign of acceptance of the sinner and the outcast. In the last meal before his death, Jesus took and shared with his disciples bread and wine, speaking of these elements as his body and blood, symbols of the new relationship with God brought about by his impending death. On the day of his resurrection, the risen Jesus made himself known to his followers in the breaking of bread.

In the act of remembering that is the Lord's Supper, we receive and trust the love of Christ present to us and to the world. Through it, we are renewed and empowered to be the church, the body of Christ, in the world.

The invitation to the Lord's Supper is not just for Presbyterians or "members of the church." All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to partake of the Lord's Supper. Access to the Table is not a right conferred upon the worthy but a privilege given to the undeserving who come in faith, repentance, and love. Even one who doubts or whose trust is wavering may receive the bread and grape juice (in place of wine) in order to be assured of God's love and grace in Jesus Christ.

At our morning communion services, the congregation is served in the pews by elders and deacons in an act symbolizing their role as servant leaders in the church. The congregation also takes on the role of serving: worshipers first take the bread and grape juice from the plate held by their neighbor and then they take the plate and serve the neighbor on their other side. Empty glasses are placed in the ringed holes in the pew racks.

Fourth Presbyterian Church celebrates the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper each Sunday at evening worship and at morning worship on the first Sunday of even-numbered months.
