

March 2, 2003 The Eighth Sunday After Epiphany

Should I lie or tell the truth? Is my marriage vow binding? Ought I give in when temptation calls? To whom are my obligations strongest? To answer such questions, Americans have traditionally relied on time-tested moral rules, usually handed down by a supreme being, that command obedience and punish defiance. Now we live in an age of moral freedom, in which individuals are expected to determine for themselves what it means to lead a good and virtuous life.

A Series on the Ten Commandments

I: "I AM THE LORD YOUR GOD"

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

(unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

God of compassion, have mercy upon us as we confess our sin. In Christ you bring light, yet we still dwell in darkness. Your word offers guidance, but we choose to ignore your counsel. You promise renewal, but we do not heed your wisdom. We bow to the gods of this world, choosing to hide from your truth. Speak to us again from beyond the clouds of our sinfulness; dazzle us anew with the light of Christ's love. Restore and forgive us, we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Psalter Reading Psalm 19:1-9 (responsively) (page 498, O.T.)

Affirmation of Faith (unison)

We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Worship Notes

Fourth Church is pleased to welcome Ronald C. White Jr. to its pulpit today for 6:30 p.m. Vespers. Dr. White, a Presbyterian pastor, is the author of Lincoln's Greatest Speech: The Second Inaugural and four other books on topics of American intellectual, religious, and social history. Currently Professor of American Intellectual and Religious History and Dean at San Francisco Theological Seminary, he also has taught at Colorado College, Whitworth College, Princeton Theological Seminary, and UCLA.

In addition to preaching this evening, Dr. White will be available this afternoon at 4:30 p.m. in the Randolph Room for informal group conversation. Please join us for both of these special opportunities.

The cityscape banners, designed for the Stewardship 2003 campaign by Nancy Chinn, are revealed as member pledges are received, indicating our communal pledge to be a light in the city through the mission and ministries of Fourth Church.

The morning hymn "Be Thou My Vision," based on an eighth-century Irish text, expresses the ageless needs both to have a heavenly vision and to experience God's care and personal presence throughout this earthly pilgrimage. The author's high regard for God is evident in the various titles ascribed to God throughout the song.

This is our last week to view the cityscape banners, which elegantly testify to the fact that we are a church that cares about our friends and neighbors and wants to share with them the love of Christ both in moments of celebration and moments of need.
