First Sunday in Lent

Temptations to break the sabbath are understandable: we are needed, we are vital, we have made commitments and need this extra time to fulfill them, we don't want to let people down, there is so much good that can be done. The temptation to break the sabbath is the temptation to do extra good. Why is extra good necessary? Because salvation is just out of reach and we are striving for it? Because we are surrounded by suffering and evil, and God can't or won't intervene, so we must? The sabbath is a great test of our faith in God.

Honoring one's parents is about acknowledging contingency. . . . Whatever our feelings about our parents, our practice toward them must be one of gratitude, reflecting the fact that without them there would be no us. Our respect for them is a practical demonstration of our thankfulness to God.

Worship Notes

An unfolding flower growing out of a crown of thorns appears on the Lenten bulletin covers, providing an apt metaphor for the new life arising from Christ's death and resurrection. This flower and crown of thorns is carved into the underside of the octagonal sounding board over the pulpit.

This evening during Vespers, Women@Fourth Connect observes World Day of Prayer. Three women will be sharing their stories and experiences with issues affecting women and children from developing parts of the world, including Africa, Asia, and South America. Join them in celebrating the gifts of women from around the world during this special service of prayer and communion.

The prelude "O Lamb of God" by Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) is based on a Lutheran hymn tune. By placing that tune in the bass and alto voices, Bach depicts the human and divine nature of Christ. Above and within these voices is a descending thematic pattern that depicts sighing, which represents the suffering of Christ and of all humanity.

John Buchanan is preaching this morning at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Hamilton, Bermuda, which is celebrating its 160th anniversary.

"One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering: Each year during Lent, Fourth Presbyterian Church receives this offering, which supports Fourth Church's Center for Whole Life in Cabrini-Green, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Self Development of People program. To make a gift to the "One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering, use one of the special envelopes in the pew rack or write "One Great Hour" on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.

BAPTISM AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

*“Let the little children come to me . . .
for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs.”
Matthew 19:14 (NRSV)*

On the second Sunday of each month, Fourth Church includes the Sacrament of Baptism in morning worship. Baptism is the sign and seal of God’s grace and covenant in Christ. As The Book of Order of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) explains, baptism signifies the faithfulness of God, the washing away of sin, rebirth, putting on the fresh garment of Christ, and adoption into the covenant family of the church.

The baptism of children witnesses to the truth that God’s love claims people before they are able to respond in faith. The congregation, on behalf of the whole church, assumes responsibility for nurturing the baptized children in the Christian life, and it is for this reason that the congregation makes such a promise during the service.

In the unison prayer we also remember that we too were baptized and as children of God are part of the worldwide family of faith.

Children being baptized at the 9:30 worship service are

Avery Scott Burow, son of Scott and Kathy Burow

Charles Stuart Larkins and Margaret Mary Larkins, twin son and daughter of Stuart and Karin Larkins

Russell William McGrath, son of Will and Laura McGrath

Daniel Patrick Philip, son of Steve and Karen Philip

Marianne Robin Wolter, daughter of Brad and Michele Wolter

Children begin baptized at the 11:00 worship service are

Isabel Rae Pepol, daughter of Dean and Laura Pepol

Calum Jeffrey Gretz, son of Daren Gretz and Liz McConnell-Gretz

Sophie Caitlin Enright, daughter of Daniel and Pam Enright

Anna Elizabeth Wiers, daughter of Nate and Shari Wiers
