Second Sunday of Easter

Say no to peace
if what they mean by peace
is the quiet misery of hunger,
the frozen stillness of fear,
the silence of broken spirits,
the unborn hopes of the oppressed.

Tell them that peace
is the shouting of children at play,
the babble of tongues set free,
the thunder of dancing feet,
and a father's voice singing . . .

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary.

Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14, through the south transept doors and to the right. See an usher for directions.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church

Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship.

We invite you to stop by Coffee Hour after worship for fellowship, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

A church tour begins at 12:15 p.m., starting at the back of the sanctuary.

Inquirers' Class offers an opportunity to explore Presbyterian history and beliefs.

This one-session class is also a prerequisite for membership. Attend Monday, May 5, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.; Saturday, May 17, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon; or Monday, June 2, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. For information about membership, call Calum MacLeod, Associate Pastor for New Members, at 981-4025.

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

Loving God, we read of your mighty acts among your people, and we rejoice in your power displayed in Jesus, the risen One. We confess our faithlessness and lack of trust. We have lived as though your power belonged to the past; we have not trusted Jesus to work miracles of healing and forgiveness in us; we have looked at our own sin and been frightened by it; and when we have looked at the sin of others, it has made us smug. Lord, have mercy upon us. Raise us out of the captivity of guilt into the freedom and energy of forgiven people. Amen.

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

God, we come to you as a confessing people. We acknowledge your presence here among us and confess that we forget that you are always with us. We are a people who intend to do what is right. We intend to be your servants, to be your hands and feet in the world. We intend to give ourselves to you fully. However, we fall short of our intentions and your hope for us. God, as the deer pants for water, so our souls long for you. Grant us peace as we listen for your call and courage to follow when we hear it.

WORSHIP

A gift supporting Eastertime sanctuary flowers was given in memory of Bertha Kearney.

The needlepoint panels and cross installed in the chancel in time for Easter were conceived and stitched by Morgan Simmons, Fourth Church organist and choirmaster for twenty-eight years and Fourth Church member. They were presented by him as his gift to the church. The sheaves of wheat in the panels symbolize Jesus as the bread of life, and the clusters of grapes reflect the atoning blood of Christ. These panels honor the ministry of Joanna Adams, just as the upper chancel seat cushions, also the work of Morgan Simmons, honor the ministries of Fourth Church pastors John Timothy Stone, Harrison Ray Anderson, Elam Davies, and John M. Buchanan.
