Second Sunday After Pentecost

FOURTH
PRESBY
TERIAN
CHURCH

A LIGHT IN THE CITY

Our first glimpse of reality this day
—everyday—is your fidelity.
We are dazzled by the ways you remain
constant among us,
 in season, out of season,
 for better, for worse,
 in sickness and in health.
You are there in watchfulness as we fall asleep;
You are there in alertness when we awaken . . .
 Before the day ends, we will look away
 from you and
 relish our own fidelity and our virtue
 in mercy . . .
 but not now, not at the dawn.

Now, at the dawn, our eyes are fixed on you
in gladness.
We ask only that your faithfulness
permeate every troubled place we are able to name,
that your steadfastness
hold firmly what is too fragile
on its own.
And we begin the day in joy, in hope,
and in deep gladness. Amen.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary.

Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14, through the south transept doors and to the right. See an usher for directions.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshippers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church

Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship. We invite you to stop by Coffee Hour after worship for fellowship, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

A church tour begins at 12:15 p.m., starting at the back of the sanctuary.

Inquirers' Class offers an opportunity to explore Presbyterian history and beliefs.

This one-session class is also a prerequisite for membership. Attend Sunday, June 29, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Monday, July 7, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.; or Saturday, July 19, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?”
Mark 4:40 (NRSV)

Hymn 286 “Give to the Winds Thy Fears” Tune: ST. BRIDE

Apostles’ Creed (unison)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand
of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come
to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Prayers of the People
and the Lord’s Prayer (unison)
Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power
and the glory forever. Amen.

Hymn 466 "O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing" Tune: AZMON

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Gracious God, you know us better than we know ourselves. In your presence our disguises and defenses fall away. In the light of your holiness and mercy we see ourselves for what we are. We confess that we are anxious and fearful about the wrong things. Our fears spawn our hatreds and destructive behavior. Forgive us for our lack of faith in your power to free us from the bondage of our fears. Grant us courage to live with integrity, to care for others with compassion, and to take our stand against violence and injustice wherever we encounter them in your world. We pray in the name of Christ our Lord. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. I declare to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven. Friends, believe the good news.

All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

We are not alone, we live in God's world.
We believe in God: who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh,
to reconcile and make new, who works in us
and others by the Spirit. We trust in God.
We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice
and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death,
in life beyond death, God is with us.
We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Worship Notes

The hymn “Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah” was authored by the Welsh evangelist William Williams (1717–1791). For forty-three years, he traveled nearly 100,000 miles on horseback throughout Wales and was respected as a persuasive preacher and as the “sweet singer of Wales.” Williams wrote the text for more than 800 hymns, all in Welsh, but this is the only hymn for which he is widely known today. It has since been translated into seventy-five languages.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, “Unweavings” created by Laurie Wohl, celebrate Ordinary Time, the season of the church year that falls between Epiphany and Lent and between Pentecost and Advent. They are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the “ordinary” as we make our faith journey day to day. More information about these hangings is available in the literature racks.

The Fourth Church stained-glass windows, depicted on the bulletin cover, were designed by Charles J. Connick of Boston. The north and south sanctuary windows were made in the thirteenth-century manner known as grisaille.

Fourth Church is receiving an offering throughout the summer to support the programs of Partners in Education. Gifts to this special offering can be made using the envelopes in the pew racks or by writing, on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church, the name of the PIE program you wish to support (see envelope for list of programs).

NEWS, OPPORTUNITIES, AND RESOURCES

MISSION AND OUTREACH

Pies in support of PIE (Partners in Education) are available for a minimum donation of $15 today and during Coffee Hours throughout the summer (except July 6). Proceeds from the donations for these pies from Rolf's Patisseries benefit Tutoring, Scholarship, and City Lights Summer Day programs, the Center for Whole Life, and the Near North Magnet Cluster Schools.

Order your PIE Christmas cards this summer. Through July 31, cards can be ordered at last year's prices ($12 per pack of 12 cards). Order forms are available during Coffee Hour, and proceeds from the sale of these cards designed by Tutoring students benefit the Tutoring Program.

Stop by the Advocacy Table during Coffee Hour and learn about the issue of children and gun safety. For those interested, a letter is available to send to representatives asking for their support of a bill requiring the gun industry to comply with the same health and safety regulations that apply to all other products sold in the U.S.

The Puerto Vallarta mission trip begins today. Ten members of Fourth Church leave today to spend a week readying a new Christian school for its September opening. Please keep these travelers in your prayers as they participate in the worldwide mission and ministry of Jesus Christ.
