

The divine word strives to inspire us to see life not from the narrow confines of fleeting 80-year-life expectancy. Rather, we are to find our place in a world that was created eons before we came into being, by a Creator who existed eternities before this universe was shaped; a world whose idealized perfection may well be realized ages after we are gone from the scene. If humans can see the world even a little bit from this perspective, they will recognize their modest place; their judgments will be less distorted by the skewing that power, wealth, social standing, and religious membership generate. They will be more able to find their proper role in the perfecting of the world. They will act closer to the norms of love, justice, and dignity, which are the proper responses to the value of their fellow creatures.

God of grace, love, and communion,
we confess that we have failed to love you

Have mercy on us. Forgive our sins and raise us to new life that we may serve you faithfully and give honor to your holy name. Amen.

Send forth these young people in the power of your Spirit to perform the service you have set before them. OFFERING

OFFERTORY SOLO
(8:00)

"Brother James' Air"

arr. Phyllis Tate

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want; he makes me down to lie in pastures green. He leadeth me the quiet waters by. My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make within the paths of blessedness, even for his own name's sake.
Yea, though I pass through shadowed vale, yet will I fear no ill, for thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.
My table thou hast furnished in presence of my foes.
My head with oil thou dost anoint and my cup overflows.
Goodness and mercy all my days will surely follow me and in my Father's heart always my dwelling place shall be.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

God everlasting, trinity holy, unity unchanging, goodness our voices. Thine be the glory, Deity Almighty, One in Three Persons, Monarch in the highest. Glory and honor, song and praise besem thee now and forever. Amen.

Worship Notes

Today is Trinity Sunday, the day when the church celebrates the mystery of God as Three in One: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; one God who is Creator, Redeemer, and Comforter.

The Chicago Lights Annual Fund Appeal continues today. Because this is the only general appeal for Chicago Lights that will be made this year, those who would like to make gifts in support of the Chicago Lights programs—Partners in Education, Elam Davies Social Service Center, Center for Whole Health, and Center for Older Adults—may want to take advantage of the special offering envelopes available in the pew racks. Gifts can also be made by writing “Chicago Lights Annual Fund” on a check made payable to Chicago Lights.

Today’s 9:30 and 11:00 postlude, Trinity’s Shield by Dan Locklair, is based on three notes that are meant to represent the Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The bulletin cover shows the arched ceiling high above the north balcony. The large colorful canvases that can be seen there depict angels, doves, grapes, and other biblical images.
