

What is the chief end of man?

Man's chief end is to glorify God, and to enjoy him forever.

The Westminster Shorter Catechism, 1643

We are not meant to cringe before God. We are to enjoy all the delights the Lord has given us, sunsets and sunrises, and a baby's first laugh, and friendship and love, and the brilliance of the stars.

BAPTISM AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

*“Let the little children come to me . . .
for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs.”
Matthew 19:14 (NRSV)*

On the second Sunday of each month, Fourth Church includes the Sacrament of Baptism in morning worship. Baptism is the sign and seal of God’s grace and covenant in Christ. As The Book of Order of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) explains, baptism signifies the faithfulness of God, the washing away of sin, rebirth, putting on the fresh garment of Christ, and adoption into the covenant family of the church.

The baptism of children witnesses to the truth that God’s love claims people before they are able to respond in faith. The congregation, on behalf of the whole church, assumes responsibility for nurturing the baptized children in the Christian life, and it is for this reason that the congregation makes such a promise during the service.

In the unison prayer we also remember that we too were baptized and as children of God are part of the worldwide family of faith.

The children being baptized at the 9:30 worship service are

*Delaney Melinda Barrymore, daughter of John and Stephanie Barrymore
Delaney Hamelin Kirk, daughter of Stuart and Elizabeth Kirk
William Kenneth Kozlowski, son of Mike and Lindsey Kozlowski*

The children being baptized at the 11:00 worship service are

*Ryan Rayfield Anderson, son of Rick and Kim Anderson
Abigail Jane Bartlett, daughter of Jeff and Kendra Bartlett
Grayson James Dickerhofe, son of Stephen and Sandra Dickerhofe
Griffin Acree Domm, son of Aaron and Kathleen Domm
David Johannes Jordaan, son of Dawid and Amanda Jordaan

Worship Notes

This weekend we join churches and communities across the nation in honoring the life and legacy of Martin Luther King Jr., pastor and Civil Rights leader, who became the youngest individual to receive the Nobel Peace Prize, at the age of thirty-five. And we remember his words, from “Letter from Birmingham Jail,” written in 1963: “There was a time when the church was very powerful, in the time when the early Christians rejoiced at being deemed worthy to suffer for what they believed. In those days the church was not merely a thermometer that recorded the ideas and principles of popular opinion; it was a thermostat that transformed the mores of society. Whenever the early Christians entered a town, the power structure immediately sought to convict them for being ‘disturbers of the peace’ and ‘outside agitators.’ But the Christians pressed on, in the conviction that they were a ‘colony of heaven,’ called to obey God rather than man. Small in number, they were big in commitment.”

The textile banners and pulpit parament, “Unweavings” created by Laurie Wohl, are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the “ordinary” as we make our faith journey day to day. More information about these hangings is available in the literature racks.

The bulletin cover depicts the wooden ceiling of the sanctuary. Designed by renowned Chicago artist Frederick C. Bartlett, the ceiling is characteristic of English churches and reflects the Viking influences on the British Isles.
