

The calling to be faithful and loving is one that extends to any and all walks of life and that cannot be identified with any one of them. And it is this calling to faithfulness and love with which Christian vocation is really concerned, the calling to follow the one who obeyed the Father to the end, who laid down his life for his friends—the one who, as such, was raised from the dead and exalted to the right hand of the Father.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary. Worship also can be heard through the "T" setting of hearing aids.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the sanctuary and return as you wish. The worship service audio can be heard in Stone Chapel, where you and your child are also welcome. Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14, through the south transept doors and to the right. See an usher for directions.

Worship bags, containing quiet activities and a bulletin designed for children, are available outside the south transept doors, between the sanctuary and Anderson Hall. Children who are attending worship in the sanctuary are invited to borrow one of these bags.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church

A church tour begins at 12:15 p.m., starting at the back of the sanctuary.

Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship.

We invite you to stop by Coffee Hour after worship for fellowship, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

Parking is available Sundays at the John Hancock Center, 875 North Michigan Avenue (access Chestnut Street), at the rate of $7.00 until 2:00 p.m. and at 900 North Michigan (access from Rush or Walton Street) at the rate of $7.75 to 4:00 p.m. and $6.00 after 5:00 p.m. Validation tickets must be picked up during Coffee Hour or from the Chestnut Street reception desk.

Inquirers' Class offers an opportunity to explore Presbyterian history and beliefs. This one-session class is also a prerequisite for membership. Attend today from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Monday, July 9 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.; or Saturday, July 14 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. PRAYER OF CONFESSION
(unison)

Gracious God,
your love is always present to us,
but we walk through life without acknowledging you.
We decide what to say and do on our own,
forgetting that we are called to be your disciples
in all times and places.
When we make mistakes
we forget to ask for your forgiveness.
Forgive us, Lord.
Help us to sense your presence in our lives
in the good times and the bad.
Help us to know your presence and to feel your kindness and care for us.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

DECLARATION OF PARDON

Minister: Friends, believe the good news.

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

ANTHEM “This World, My God, Is Held within Your Hand”
Richard Proulx

This world, my God, is held within your hand, though we forget your love and steadfast light. And in the changing day uncertain stand, disturbed by morning and afraid of night. Grant in the peace of morning we may walk as Adam in the garden that first day. Until we come with you in quiet talk to our eternal home the straightest way. Amen.

FIRST LESSON Galatians 3:23–29 (page 178, N.T.)

Minister: The Word of the Lord.

Tune: WER NUR DEN LIEBEN GOTT

APOSTLES CREED (unison)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

PRAYER RESPONSE

“Alleluia. Amen.”

“Jubilate Deo”

William Walton

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands, serve the Lord with gladness

Carvings on the west wall of Stone Chapel depict the four evangelists—Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John—and their symbols, held by angels (winged man, winged lion, winged ox, and eagle). The bottom row depicts Peter, Stephen, Paul, and Timothy.

The chapel was dedicated in 1931 in honor of John Timothy Stone, who served as pastor of Fourth Church from 1909 to 1930 and oversaw the church’s move to its current location on Michigan Avenue in 1914. The presence of three of the carvings in Stone Chapel is explained in part by the nominating motion for Stone as moderator of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) in May, 1913: “[This] candidate has the tenderness of John, the evangelistic spirit of Timothy, and the strength of Peter.” (Since most of those present knew that “Peter” is Greek for “stone,” the nominee’s identity was revealed.)

Worship Notes

Each gift of $150 to the Summer Day offering makes it possible for one student from Cabrini-Green or another economically disadvantaged neighborhood to participate in the six-week, full-day academic and fine arts Summer Day program. Held at Fourth Church from June 18 to July 27, Summer Day, a program of Chicago Lights at Fourth Presbyterian Church, serves 120 children each year. Special Summer Day offering envelopes are available in the pew racks.

John Buchanan is preaching at the Chautauqua Institute in Chautauqua, New York, today.

Members of the Handbell Choir are making their debut during 9:30 and 11:00 worship this morning. They are part of two groups now ringing the handbells recently purchased with an anonymous gift to the Fourth Church Center for Sacred Arts.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, “Unweavings” created by Laurie Wohl, are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the “ordinary” as we make our faith journey day to day. More information about these hangings is available in the literature racks.
