

The most disturbing quality of the baby Jesus, the mystery of his advent that scandalizes even as it inexorably beckons, is the vulnerability of his incarnation. Nothing is so helpless, so dependent, so fragile, so frail, as a baby. I know of no other religion so bold as to admit to the possibility of its God appearing in so vulnerable a form. How scandalously condescending is the love of God who deems to meet us first as a baby. How threatening is this God to my human desire for an aloof, Platonic deity who lives in the realm of the abstract, self-contained ideal, rather than in the stable out back, wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary. Worship also can be heard through the "T" setting of hearing aids.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the sanctuary and return as you wish. The worship service audio can be heard in Stone Chapel, where you and your child are also welcome. Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14, through the south transept doors and to the right. See an usher for directions.

Worship bags, containing quiet activities and a bulletin designed for children, are available outside the south transept doors, between the sanctuary and Anderson Hall. Children who are attending worship in the sanctuary are invited to borrow one of these bags.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church

Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship.

A church tour begins at 12:15 p.m., starting at the back of the sanctuary.

We invite you to stop by Coffee Hour after worship for fellowship, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

Parking is available Sundays at the John Hancock Center, 875 North Michigan Avenue (access Chestnut Street), at the rate of $7.00 until 2:00 p.m. and at 900 North Michigan (access from Rush or Walton Street) at the rate of $7.75 to 4:00 p.m. and $6.00 after 5:00 p.m. Validation tickets must be picked up during Coffee Hour or from the Chestnut Street reception desk.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

(unison)

God of the future, as you came long ago in the birth of a child, so you are coming into the world to save and reconcile and make all things new.
We confess that we have not expected your kingdom.
Distracted by the bright holiday lights, we have failed to see and to welcome you in the poor,
the marginalized, the weak and vulnerable.
Discouraged by newspaper headlines, we have failed to see and welcome signs of your healing presence.
In your mercy, forgive us.
Renew hope within us, that we may be awake and alert, watching for our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Stand as you are able.*

APOSTLES CREED

(unison)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;

from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.
Amen.

CANTATA (9:30 and 11:00)

"A Ceremony of Carols"

Benjamin Britten

Procession Today Christ is born; today the savior has appeared. Today the angels sing on earth, the archangels rejoice. Today the righteous exult, saying, "Glory to God in the highest. Alleluia."

Wolcum Yole! Wolcum be thou hevenè King, wolcum yole! Born in one morning, wolcum for whom we sall sing! Wolcum be ye Stevene and Jon; wolcum be ye, good newe yere; wolcum, innocentes every one; wolcum, twelfthe day both in fere. Wolcum, Thomas marter one; wolcum, seintes lefe and dere. Wolcum candelmesse, quene of bliss; wolcum bothe to more and lesse. Wolcum be ye that are here; wolcum alle and make good cheer, wolcum all another yere.

There Is No Rose There is no rose of such vertu as is the rose that bare Jesu, alleluia, for in this rose containèd was heaven and earth in litel space, res miranda. By that rose we may well see there be one God in persons three, pares forma. The angels sungen, the shepherds too:
"Gloria in excelsis Deo!" Gaudeamus. Leave we all this werldly mirth, and follow we this joyful birth, transeamus.

That Youngë Child That youngë child, when it gan to weep, with song she lulled him asleep, that was so sweet a melody it passéd alle minstrelsy. The nightingalè sang also; her song is hoarse and nought thereto, whoso attendeth to her song and leaveth the first then doth he wrong.

Balulalow O my deare hert, young Jesu sweit, prepare the creddil in my spreit, and I sall rock thee to my hert and never mair from thee depart. But I sall praise thee evermoir with sanges sweit unto thy gloir; the knees of my hert sall I bow and sing that richt balulalow!

As Dew in Aprille I sing of a maiden that is makèles, King of all kings to her son she ches. He came, al so stille, there his moder was.
As dew in Aprille that falleth on the grass he came, al so stille, to his moder's bour, as dew in Aprille that falleth on the flower. He came, al so stille, there his moder lay, as dew in Aprille that falleth on the spray. Moder and mayden was never none but she, well may such lady Goddes moder be.

This Little Babe This little babe, so few days old, is come to rifle Satan's fold.
All hell doth at his presence quake, though he himself for cold do shake, for in this weak unarmed wise, the gates of hell he will surprise. With tears he fights and wins the field; his naked breast stands for a shield. His battering shot are babish cries, his arrows looks of weeping eyes, his martial ensigns cold and need, and feeble flesh his warrior's steed. His camp is pitchéd in a stall, his bulwark but a broken wall; the crib his trench, haystalks his stakes, of shepherds he his muster makes. And thus, as sure his foe to wound, the angels' trumps alarum sound. My soul, with Christ join thou in fight, stick to the tents that he hath pight. Within his crib is surest ward, this little babe will be thy guard. If thou wilt foil thy foes with joy, then flit not from this heavenly boy.

Interlude

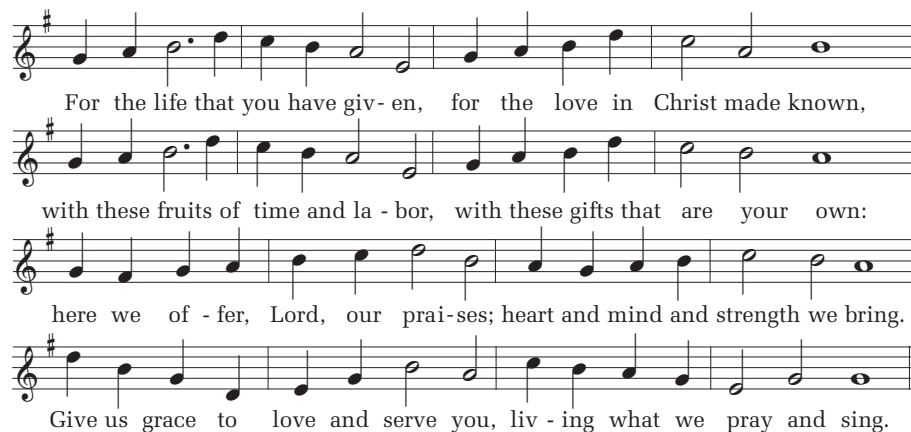

In Freezing Winter Night Behold, a silly, tender babe in freezing winter night, in homely manger trembling lies, alas, a piteous sight! The inns are full; no man will yield this little pilgrim bed, but forced he is with silly beasts in crib to shroud his head. This stable is a Prince's court, this crib his chair of state. The beasts are parcel of his pomp, the wooden dish his plate. The persons in that poor attire his royal liveries wear. The Prince himself is come from heaven, this pomp is prizéd there. With joy approach, O Christian wight, do homage to thy King and highly praise his humble pomp, wich he from heaven doth bring,

Spring Carol Pleasure it is to hear iwis; the birdès sing, the deer in the dale, the sheep in the vale, the corn springing, God's purveyance for sustenance, it is for man. Then we always to him give praise and thank him than.

Deo Gracias! Deo gracias! Adam lay ibounden, bounden in a bond, four thousand winter thought he not too long. And all was for an appil, an appil that he tok, as clerkès finden written in their book. Ne had the appil také ben, ne haddè never our lady a ben hevenè queen. Blessèd be the time that appil také was. Therefore we moun singen, Deo gracias!

Recession Today Christ is born; today the savior has appeared. Today the angels sing on earth, the archangels rejoice. Today the righteous exult, saying, "Glory to God in the highest. Alleluia."

Worship Notes

Today's Christmas Cantata, A Ceremony of Carols, was written by Benjamin Britten (1913–1976) in 1942. It is a modern classic that established this important composer's popularity. Based on medieval and later texts, A Ceremony of Carols was written originally for female voices and harp. The version heard today, for mixed chorus and harp, was arranged by Julius Harrison. This morning's Christmas Cantata is made possible by a generous gift from Pamela and Sarah Buffet.

Tower Brass, Fourth Church's brass octet, assists in worship leadership this morning. Tower Brass participates in 9:30 and 11:00 worship each third Sunday of the month during the academic year.

The "Light Up a Life" Christmas offering supports congregational programs; mission and community outreach, including Chicago Lights programs; and denominational programs. "Light Up a Life" gifts can be made using the special offering envelopes found in the pew racks or by writing "Light Up a Life" on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.
