

I have no object to defend
for all is of equal value to me.
I cannot lose anything in this place of abundance I found.
If something my heart cherishes
is taken away,
I just say, "Lord, what happened?"
And a hundred more appear.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary. Worship also can be heard through the "T" setting of hearing aids.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the sanctuary and return as you wish. The worship service audio can be heard in Stone Chapel, where you and your child are also welcome. Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14, through the south transept doors and to the right. See an usher for directions.

Worship bags, containing quiet activities and a bulletin designed for children, are available outside the south transept doors, between the sanctuary and Anderson Hall. Children who are attending worship in the sanctuary are invited to borrow one of these bags.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church

Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship.

We invite you to stop by Coffee Hour after worship for fellowship, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

A church tour begins at 12:15 p.m., starting at the back of the sanctuary.

Parking is available Sundays at the John Hancock Center, 875 North Michigan Avenue (access Chestnut Street), at the rate of $7.00 for three hours and at 900 North Michigan (access from Rush or Walton Street) at the rate of $7.75 to 4:00 p.m. and $6.00 after 5:00 p.m. Validation tickets for 900 parking must be picked up during Coffee Hour or from the Chestnut Street reception desk. Hancock tickets must be validated in the Narthex, at the back of the sanctuary.

Inquirers' Class explores Presbyterian history and beliefs. This one-session class is also a prerequisite for membership. Attend Monday, June 2 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.; Saturday, June 14 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon; or Sunday, June 22 from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. For information about membership, contact Calum MacLeod, Associate Pastor, at 312.981.4025 (cmacleod@fourthchurch.org).

MORNING WORSHIP

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

PRELUDE Requiescat in Pace (Rest in Peace) Leo Sowerby

INTROIT “What Shall We Pray” John Bell

What shall we pray for those who died, those on whose death our lives relied? Silenced by war, but not denied, God give them peace. God give us peace and, more than this, show us the path where justice is; and let us never be remiss working for peace that lasts.

DOXOLOGY AND INVOCATION (The Hymnal, 592)

HYMN 473 “For the Beauty of the Earth” Tune: Dix

PRAYER OF CONFESSION
(unison)

Merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you
with our whole heart and mind and strength.
We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy, forgive what we have been,
help us amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be,
so that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name.
Amen.

DECLARATION OF PARDON

Minister: Friends, believe the good news.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

PSALTER Psalm 131 (unison) (page 542, O.T.)

Stand as you are able.*

ANTHEM

“Earth Does Not Hold”

Eric H. Thiman

Earth does not hold the spirits of the brave. Seek no imprisoned honor in the grave. The body broken, the unbroken soul in some new region is unscarred and whole. They gave their peace that peace might follow pain; they died in Christ, in him they live again. As Christ is ever with us, so are they a shining host upon the shining way. O, in the bright procession of their fame may we now follow, free from sloth and shame, to that great music, on the path they trod, who now have ended pilgrimage with God. We praise and bless the memory of all whose lives were given at their country’s call; let God by us who live be glorified and by the living souls of them who died

HYMN 267

“All Things Bright and Beautiful”

Tune: ROYAL OAK

APOSTLES’ CREED

(unison)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.
Amen.

OFFERTORY SOLO"Pie Jesu" from RequiemGabriel Fauré

Blessed Jesus, Lord, I pray in thy mercy

OFFERTORY RESPONSE

For the life that you have given, for the love in Christ made known,
with these fruits of time and labor, with these gifts that are your own:
here we offer, Lord, our praises; heart and mind and strength we bring.
Give us grace to love and serve you, living what we pray and sing.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power
and the glory forever. Amen.

The composer of this morning’s prelude, Leo Sowerby, was one of the most prominent American liturgical composers of the twentieth century. After serving as Associate Organist at Fourth Presbyterian Church, he spent most of his career at St. James Cathedral here in Chicago. The prelude, “Requiescat in Pace,” is in variation form and uses the chromaticism that characterizes so much of Sowerby’s work.

Fourth Church offers a variety of weekly worship opportunities in addition to Sunday morning services. A Vespers Communion service is held at 6:30 p.m. each Sunday evening. Each weekday morning, Morning Prayer is held in Stone Chapel (9:30 a.m. on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday; 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday).

The textile banners and pulpit parament, “Unweavings” created by Laurie Wohl, were commissioned by Fourth Church for use during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church year (the season between Epiphany and Lent and between Pentecost and Advent). Through their combination of scripture texts and image, these banners celebrate and elevate the perception of the sacred in the “ordinary” as we make our faith journey day to day.

On the cover: The colorful arched ceiling high above the north balcony depicts angels, doves, grapes, and other biblical images. The large canvases were hand-cleaned by professional art restorers during the sanctuary renovation in 1994.
