

The question should not be “WWJD—What would Jesus do?” but “What would Jesus have us do?” The onus is not on Jesus but on us, for Jesus did not come to ask semi-divine human beings to do impossible things. He came to ask human beings to live up to their full humanity. He wants us to live in the full implications of our human gifts, and that is far more demanding. . . . We are meant to live as bravely and fully in our world and time as Jesus lived in his.

(unison)

Almighty and merciful God,
we have erred and strayed from your ways

the devices and desires of our own hearts.
We have offended against your holy laws.
We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done.
O Lord, have mercy upon us.
Spare those who confess their faults.
Restore those who are penitent, according to your

And grant, O merciful God, for his sake,
that we may live a holy, just, and humble life

THE COMMUNION

COMMUNION ANTHEM “The Call”

Kenneth Jennings

Come my way, my truth, my life: such a way as gives us breath;
such a truth as ends all strife; such a life as killeth death.
Come, my light, my feast, my strength: such a light as shows a feast; such a feast as mends in length; such a strength as makes his guest. Come, my joy, my love, my heart: such a joy as none can move; such a love as none can part; such a heart as joys in love.

PSALM 23

(recited in unison after all have received the cup)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

(unison)

Gracious God,
you have made us one with all your people
in heaven and on earth.
You have fed us with the bread of life
and renewed us for your service.
Help us who have shared Christ’s body
and received his cup
to be his faithful disciples,
so that our daily living
may be part of the life of your kingdom
and our love be your love
reaching out into the life of the world;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Lord's Supper at Fourth Presbyterian Church

"Do this in remembrance of me." Luke 22:19 (NRSV)

THE LORD'S SUPPER IS THE SIGN AND SEAL of eating and drinking in communion with the crucified and risen Lord. In this act, we remember that during his earthly ministry, Jesus shared meals with his followers and sat at dinner tables as a sign of acceptance of the sinner and the outcast. In the last meal before his death, Jesus took and shared with his disciples bread and wine, speaking of these elements as his body and blood, symbols of the new relationship with God brought about by his impending death. On the day of his resurrection, the risen Jesus made himself known to his followers in the breaking of bread.

In the act of remembering that is the Lord's Supper, we receive and trust the love of Christ present to us and to the world. Through it, we are renewed and empowered to be the church, the body of Christ, in the world.

The invitation to the Lord's Supper is not just for Presbyterians or "members of the church." All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to partake of the Lord's Supper. Access to the Table is not a right conferred upon the worthy but a privilege given to the undeserving who come in faith, repentance, and love. Even one who doubts or whose trust is wavering may receive the bread and grape juice (in place of wine) in order to be assured of God's love and grace in Jesus Christ.

This morning the congregation is served in the pews by elders and deacons in an act symbolizing their role as servant leaders in the church. The congregation also takes on the role of serving: worshipers take the bread and grape juice from the plate held by their neighbor and then they take the plate and serve the neighbor on their other side. Empty glasses are placed in the ringed holes in the pew racks.

Fourth Presbyterian Church celebrates the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper each Sunday at 8:00 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. worship and at all morning services on the first Sunday of even-numbered months.

"I am the bread of life."

John 6:35 (NRSV)

WORSHIP NOTES

Fourth Church thanks the Chancel Choir for its musical leadership throughout the past academic year. This group of volunteer singers participates in the 8:00 service as well as other musical opportunities. This morning they also are singing with the Morning Choir at the 9:30 and 11:00 worship services.

Offering gifts to the Chicago Lights Annual Fund campaign can be made using the Chicago Lights envelopes in the pew racks or by making a check payable to Chicago Lights. Gifts to this campaign foster education and literacy, advance health and wellness, and alleviate hunger and homelessness. For information about this nonprofit community service organization at Fourth Presbyterian Church, serving more than 7,000 individuals and families annually, or its Annual Fund campaign, contact Katy Frey at 312.274.3816.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, “Unweavings” created by Laurie Wohl, were commissioned by Fourth Church for use during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church year (the season between Epiphany and Lent and between Pentecost and Advent). Through their combination of scripture texts and image, these banners celebrate and elevate the perception of the sacred in the “ordinary” as we make our faith journey day to day.

On the cover: The colorful arched ceiling high above the north balcony depicts angels, doves, grapes, and other biblical images. The large canvases were hand-cleaned by professional art restorers during the sanctuary renovation in 1994.
