Welcome

Calum I. MacLeod

Inspired by the radical hospitality of Jesus Christ, Fourth Presbyterian Church welcomes all of God's children into the life of the church regardless of gender, age, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, physical limitation, educational background, or economic situation.

Call to Worship

Jessica Vazquez Torres

Leader: We are summoned here by our holy God, who calls us each by name and gathers us together in the unity of the Spirit.

People: We are part of the Church universal—faithful people of every color, gender, sexuality, age, and ability, gathered to love and serve God.

Leader: There is a place in God's heart; there is a place at Christ's table; there is a place here for all God's people.

People: Christ, who gathers us, bids us follow in the ways of love and justice. May our hearts be open to Christ's leading in our worship!

Song of Praise "Gather Us In"

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Sarah Henken

Creating and sustaining God, your great commandment in Christ is that we love one another as Christ has loved us. We confess that we fail to embrace your liberating love. We divide where you would unite. We exclude where you would embrace. Forgive our hardness of heart. Mend our broken human family. Breathe into us the living Word of all-inclusive love. Hear now our silent confessions . . .

Silence

Assurance of Forgiveness

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Passing of the Peace

Leader: As God's forgiven people, let us greet one another with the peace of Christ.

The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

All are invited to stand and share the peace of Christ with one another.

The Service of Ordination to the Ministry of Word and Sacrament

Presentation of the Candidate

Sam Evans

Leader: There are varieties of gifts, but it is the same Spirit who gives them.

People: There are different ways of serving God, but it is the same Lord who is served.

Leader: God works through each person in a unique way, but it is God's purpose that is accomplished.

People: To each is given a gift of the Spirit to be used for the common good.

Leader: Together we are the body of Christ and individually members of it. In her baptism, Joann was clothed with Christ and is now called by God through the voice of the church to enter upon the ministry of Word and Sacrament.

People: We remember with joy our common calling to serve Christ and we celebrate God's particular call to our sister Joann.

The Lord's Prayer (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

A note on inclusive language

Incorporating ancient and contemporary traditions in this service, God will be named corporately in a variety of ways that are gender neutral. This allows for your personal expressions as you are led to name the Holy in ways meaningful to you.

Today's offering will be given to the Presbytery of Chicago's Ministers' Emergency Fund, which supports pastors during times of financial emergency.

Following worship, all are invited to a reception on behalf of Joann. It will be held in the Fourth Church Manse, which can be accessed by exiting through the main sanctuary doors on Michigan Avenue and entering through the Manse porch door. (The Manse is on the Chestnut Street end of the cloisters.)
