

The Perils of Hubris

“But God said to him, ‘You fool!’” Luke 12:20 (NRSV)

*HYMN 391

“Take My Life”

Tune: HENDON

*APOSTLES’ CREED

(unison)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
 who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
 born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
 the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
 from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
 the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
 the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE COMMUNION

COMMUNION ANTHEM “Psalm 23”

Franz Schubert

PSALM 23 (recited in unison after all have received the cup)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

CLOSING RESPONSES (responsively)

Minister: Just as a grain of wheat must die in the earth in order to bring forth a rich harvest,

People: so your Son died on the cross to bring a rich harvest of love.

Minister: Just as the harvest of wheat must be ground into flour to make bread,

People: so the suffering of your Son brings us the bread of life.

Minister: Just as the bread gives our bodies strength for our daily work,

People: so the risen body of your Son gives us strength to obey your laws. Amen.

The Lord's Supper at Fourth Presbyterian Church

"Do this in remembrance of me." Luke 22:19 (NRSV)

THE LORD'S SUPPER IS THE SIGN AND SEAL of eating and drinking in communion with the crucified and risen Lord. In this act, we remember that during his earthly ministry, Jesus shared meals with his followers and sat at dinner tables as a sign of acceptance of the sinner and the outcast. In the last meal before his death, Jesus took and shared with his disciples bread and wine, speaking of these elements as his body and blood, symbols of the new relationship with God brought about by his impending death. On the day of his resurrection, the risen Jesus made himself known to his followers in the breaking of bread.

In the act of remembering that is the Lord's Supper, we receive and trust the love of Christ present to us and to the world. Through it, we are renewed and empowered to be the church, the body of Christ, in the world.

The invitation to the Lord's Supper is not just for Presbyterians or "members of the church." All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to partake of the Lord's Supper. Access to the Table is not a right conferred upon the worthy but a privilege given to the undeserving who come in faith, repentance, and love. Even one who doubts or whose trust is wavering may receive the bread and grape juice (in place of wine) in order to be assured of God's love and grace in Jesus Christ.

This morning the congregation is served in the pews by elders and deacons in an act symbolizing their role as servant leaders in the church. The congregation also takes on the role of serving: worshipers take the bread and grape juice from the plate held by their neighbor and then they take the plate and serve the neighbor on their other side. Empty glasses are placed in the ringed holes in the pew racks.

Fourth Presbyterian Church celebrates the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper each Sunday at 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. worship and at 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. services on the first Sunday of even-numbered months.

"I am the bread of life."

WORSHIP NOTES

Annum per Annum, part of this morning's prelude, was written by Estonian composer Arvo Pärt (b. 1935) in 1980 in honor of the 900th anniversary of the Cathedral in Speyer, Germany. The piece consists of five sections, an introduction, and a coda. Each section is marked by one of the letters K—G—C—S—A, which represent Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus and Agnus Dei, pieces of music that year by year and day by day have been sung for centuries in Speyer and in Christian churches throughout the world.

The men of the Morning Choir will be singing during morning worship services in August. The full choir will return in September.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, “Unweavings” created by Laurie Wohl, were commissioned by Fourth Church for use during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church year (the season between Epiphany and Lent and between Pentecost and Advent). Through their combination of scripture texts and image, these banners celebrate and elevate the perception of the sacred in the “ordinary” as we make our faith journey day to day.

The bulletin cover depicts one of the pillars in the north aisle of the sanctuary.
