Welcome

Inspired by the radical hospitality of Jesus Christ, Fourth Presbyterian Church welcomes all of God's children into the life of the church regardless of gender, age, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, physical limitation, educational background, or economic situation.

Call to Worship (adapted from Psalm 118)

Leader: Give thanks to the Lord because God is good, because God's faithful love lasts forever.

People: Let the people say it: "God's faithful love lasts forever!"

Leader: Open the gates of righteousness, so we can come in and give thanks to the Lord!

People: I thank you because you answered me, because you were my saving help.

Leader: The stone rejected by the builders is now the main foundation stone!

People: This has happened because of the Lord; it is astounding in our sight!

Leader: This is the day the Lord acted; we will rejoice and celebrate in it!

People: Lord, please save us! Lord, please let us succeed!

Leader: The one who enters in the Lord's name is blessed;
we bless all of you from the Lord's house.

People: The Lord is God! God has shined a light on us!

Leader: You are my God—I will give thanks to you!

People: You are my God—I will lift you up high!

All: Give thanks to the Lord because God is good,
because God's faithful love lasts forever.

Hearing and Proclaiming the Word

Prayer for Illumination (unison)

Merciful God,
as we enter Holy Week and gather in this house of prayer,
turn our hearts once again to Jerusalem,
to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ,
that unified with Christ and all the faithful,
we may one day enter in triumph
the new Jerusalem of God's kingdom, where it will be on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

During Today's Worship

All are encouraged to use the prayer card, found in this worship bulletin, to offer joys and/or concerns. The cards will be collected during the Sharing of Gifts (simply place the card in the offering plate as it is passed). The prayers will then be incorporated into this afternoon's Prayers of the People.

If you have a prayer you would rather not share during worship, you are invited to complete a prayer card found by one of the prayer boxes in the Narthex, at the back of the Sanctuary, and it will be passed on to Judy Watt, Associate Pastor for Pastoral Care.

All, including children, are invited to the Lord's Table to receive Communion, which is served by intinction. The congregation will come forward by the center aisle to receive the bread (gluten-free bread is available in the paper "cup" within the basket of bread), which they will then dip into the chalice of nonalcoholic grape juice. Worshipers will return to their pews by the side aisles.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the Sanctuary.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

The large banners hanging in the middle of the Sanctuary were created by liturgical artist Shawna Bowman during the 4:00 worship service and are artistic representations of our worship experience.

Large-print Bibles and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the Sanctuary. Worship also can be heard through the "T" setting of hearing aids.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the Sanctuary and return as you wish. There is also an area in the side aisle where your child can play quietly.

Worship folders, containing quiet activities and a bulletin designed for children, are available from an usher.

Printed copies of sermons recently preached at Fourth Church are available in the literature racks outside the South Transept doors (leading to Anderson Hall) and in the Narthex, at the back of the Sanctuary. They are also available at www.fourthchurch.org/sermons.html.
