Lead us with your everlasting love and mercy.
Help free us from selfishness,
and bring us back into your light.
Amen.

Responding to the Word

*Hymn 837 . . . . . “What a Fellowship, What a Joy Divine”

*Affirmation of Faith (unison)

God’s love frees me to be the person I am without having to become more attractive,
more intelligent, more popular.

God’s love frees me to live in confidence, not needing to be self-absorbed,
but ready to listen and to hear the stories of others.

God’s love frees me to take risks, to surprise even myself with courage, sometimes to fall flat on my face—but always to move onward
with the knowledge that God is encouraging me.

God’s love frees me to view the world
not from the standpoint of wealth gained or ambition achieved, but from the perspective of relationships lived and human love shared.

God’s love frees me to put my sins behind me,
to know that no sin is too great or too small
to be left open and healed by God’s gentle touch.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

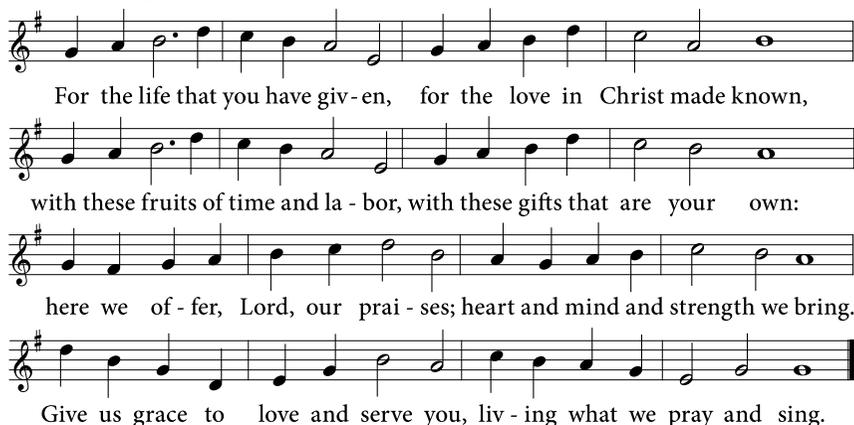

Offering

Offertory Anthem

“Come, My Way, My Truth, My Life” . . . . . Harold W. Friedell

Come, my way, my truth, my life! Such a way as gives us breath, such a truth as ends all strife, such a life that killeth death. Come, my light, my feast, my strength! Such a light as shows a feast; such a feast as mends in length, such a strength as makes his guest. Come, my joy, my love, my heart! Such a joy as none can move, such a love as none can part, such a heart as joys in love.

*Offertory Response

For the life that you have giv - en, for the love in Christ made known,
with these fruits of time and la - bor, with these gifts that are your own:
here we of - fer, Lord, our prai - ses; heart and mind and strength we bring.
Give us grace to love and serve you, liv - ing what we pray and sing.

The Communion

Communion Anthems

- “Dominus Regnavit” (from Psalm 93) . . . . . Josquin Després
“Sicut cervus desiderat” . . . . . Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina
As deer long for the flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God.

Psalm 23 (recited in unison after all have received the cup)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

*Prayer after Communion (unison)

Loving God,
throughout the ages you have led your children,
feeding our hunger with the bread of life
and nourishing our thirst with the cup of salvation.
Having fed us now in this sacred meal,
guide us in Christ’s footsteps
to love you with our entire being,
to love our neighbors as ourselves,
to do justice, to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with you. Amen.

Worship Notes

---

TODAY'S LITURGY was written and planned by the eighth-grade confirmation class.

TODAY FOURTH CHURCH CELEBRATES THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

Communion is not just for Presbyterians or "members of the church." All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, even those who doubt or whose trust is wavering, are invited to partake of the Lord's Supper, in which we are assured of God's love and grace. This morning the congregation is served in the pews by Fourth Church youth, elders, and deacons. The congregation also takes on the role of serving: worshipers take the bread (which is gluten-free) and grape juice from the plate held by their neighbor, and then they take the plate and serve the neighbor on their other side. Empty glasses are placed in the ringed holes in the pew racks.

THE BULLETIN COVER photo depicts the top of the Michigan Avenue courtyard fountain, often referred to as "the children's fountain," a gift from Howard Van Doren Shaw, co-architect of Fourth Church in 1914. The bulletin cover quote is from the Common English Bible (CEB) translation.
