

Third Sunday in Lent

Gathering

Gathering Music “Softly, as in a Morning Sunrise” Sigmund Romberg and Oscar Hammerstein II
 “Falling Grace” Steve Swallow

During this season of Lent, we reflect on our brokenness and prepare our hearts to receive the grace of God that comes to us through Christ’s death and resurrection. We invite you to share your prayers with this community in a new way this season. Instead of using our traditional prayer cards, you will receive a strip of cloth and a marker with which to write your prayers of joy and concern, making sure to use other paper or the bulletin to prevent the markers from getting on the pews or hymnals. At any point during the service, you are invited to quietly bring your cloth up to the cross and either tie it on or tuck it into the wire frame surrounding the cross.

We will continue to bring our prayers to the cross during each week of Lent as we await the promise of Easter. During the week, this cross will be placed in the Commons near the Loggia, and all are invited to add their prayers as they feel led.

Welcome

Inspired by the radical hospitality of Jesus Christ, Fourth Presbyterian Church welcomes all of God’s children into the life of the church regardless of gender, age, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, physical limitation, educational background, or economic situation.

Call to Worship

Leader: We gather around sacred stories not because they happened in the past but because they make things present for us today.

People: We were there!

Leader: Like Peter who failed Jesus at his times of greatest need, during our Lenten journey we pause to recognize and confess our own failings.

People: We are here!

Leader: Let us enter the story and worship our God.

Opening Song "God of Grace and God of Glory"

ANTIPHON (unison) I call to you with the depths of my being! With loud voice, I cry to you.

Leader: God of creation,
you give us life and a world to call home,
yet we confess that we have taken these gifts for granted.
We have not been good stewards of what we have.
We have been selfish in our exploitation of resources.
We have not been mindful of future generations.

ANTIPHON (unison) I call to you with the depths of my being! With loud voice, I cry to you.

Leader: God of goodness and love,
we confess that we have taken each other for granted.
We have not treated others as your beloved children.
We are divided against each other.
We do not love our neighbors as ourselves.

ANTIPHON (unison) I call to you with the depths of my being! With loud voice, I cry to you.

Leader: God of new beginnings,
we confess that we have taken Jesus for granted.
We have not walked in his path.
We have resisted his radical ways.
We have tamed his powerful message.
We have failed him and denied him.

ANTIPHON (unison) I call to you with the depths of my being! With loud voice, I cry to you.

Leader: God of second chances,
we confess that we have taken your grace for granted.
We give up too easily.
We don't learn from our mistakes.
We forget that you love us no matter what.

ANTIPHON (unison) I call to you with the depths of my being! With loud voice, I cry to you.

Leader: Help us, God, to follow when you call.
Help us to see beyond our limitations.
Help us to resist temptation.
Help us to be faithful until the very end.

ANTIPHON (unison) I call to you with the depths of my being! With loud voice, I cry to you.

Assurance of Forgiveness

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Passing of the Peace

Leader: As beloved children of God, let us not be strangers to one another, but siblings in Christ. Please stand and greet one another with the peace of Christ. The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

All are invited to stand and share the peace of Christ with one another.

Incorporating ancient and contemporary traditions in this service, God is named corporately in a variety of ways that are gender neutral. This allows for your personal expressions as you are led to name the Holy in ways meaningful to you.

Worship notes

The One Great Hour of Sharing Offering is being received throughout Lent. Gifts to this offering support Chicago Lights Tutoring and the Elam Davies Social Service Center as well as the work of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, Hunger, and Self-Development of People Programs. To make a “One Great Hour of Sharing” gift, you can use the envelopes in the pew racks or write “Lenten Offering” on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.

Our Lenten sermon series, “We Were There,” calls us to engage with biblical characters who encountered Christ in his final journey to the cross. Each Sunday’s lectern parament—created by Vicky Curtiss—evokes the theme of that day, and each week the parament from the previous Sunday is added to the Communion Table.

During Today's Worship

During this season of Lent, we reflect on our brokenness and prepare our hearts to receive the grace of God that comes to us through Christ's death and resurrection. We invite you to share your prayers in a new way this season—you will receive a strip of cloth and a marker with which to write your prayers of joy and concern. During the service, you are invited to quietly bring your cloth up to the cross and either tie it on or tuck it into the wire frame surrounding the cross. During the week, this cross will be placed in the Commons—all are invited to add their prayers.

All, including children, are invited to the Lord's Table to receive Communion, which is served by intinction. The congregation will come forward by the center aisle to receive the bread (gluten-free bread is available in the paper "cup" within the basket of bread), which they will then dip into the chalice of nonalcoholic grape juice. Worshipers will return to their pews by the side aisles.

The large banners hanging in the middle of the Sanctuary were created by liturgical artist Shawna Bowman during the 4:00 worship service and are artistic representations of our worship experience.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the Sanctuary.

Worship also can be heard through the "T" setting of hearing aids.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the Sanctuary and return as you wish. There is also an area in the left-side aisle where your child can play quietly.

Worship folders, containing quiet activities and a bulletin for children, are available from a greeter.

Printed copies of sermons recently preached at Fourth Church are available in the literature racks outside the South Transept doors (leading to Anderson Hall) and in the Narthex, at the back of the Sanctuary. They are also available at www.fourthchurch.org/sermons/index.html.

To notify pastoral staff of personal concerns, illnesses, hospitalizations, or deaths; to pass along a prayer request; or to arrange homebound Communion with a Deacon, contact Judy Watt, Associate Pastor for Pastoral Care, at 312.573.3360 (jwatt@fourthchurch.org).
