THE FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CHICAGO

Third Sunday of Advent

December 13, 2020

Gathering around the Word

Prelude

Savior of the Nations, Come Johann Sebastian Bach
O Come, O Come, Emmanuel. Kenneth Leighton
Gabriel's Oboe. Ennio Morricone
Savior of the Nations, Come Max Reger

Introit :: "He Shall Feed His Flock" from Messiah. George Frideric Handel

He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; and he shall gather the lambs with his arm and carry them in his bosom and gently lead those that are with young. Come unto him, all ye that labor, that are heavy laden, and he will give you rest. Take his yoke upon you, and learn of him; for he is meek and lowly of heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

*Doxology (sung)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.[†] Amen.

Welcome and Call to Worship

Prayer of Praise

[†]Or "praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost."

Hymn “On Jordan’s Bank the Baptist’s Cry”

On Jordan’s bank the Baptist’s cry announces that the Lord is nigh;
awake and hearken, for he brings glad tidings of the King of kings!

Then cleansed be every life from sin; make straight the way for God within, and let us all our hearts prepare for Christ to come and enter there.

We hail you as our Savior, Lord, our refuge and our great reward;
without your grace we waste away like flowers that wither and decay.

Stretch forth your hand; our health restore, and make us rise to fall no more.
O let your face upon us shine and fill the world with love divine.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

O Great Writer, with a sky full of stars and a world full of flowers, there should be no end to our joy.

And yet, instead of decorating our very being with joy,
we let it slip away like loose change.

Instead of singing like Mary, or dancing like David,
we pass by remarkable beauty and love most days, unfazed. Forgive us.

Teach us the ways of children, who laugh and dance and sing as if joy is the very thing that keeps them alive.

Maybe they have joy figured out.

Now hear us, O God, as we come before you in silence, confessing those sins that we do not speak aloud, but hold in our hearts . . .

(Please hold silence.)

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news:

All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Solo :: “Jesus Christ the Apple Tree” Elizabeth Poston

*The tree of life my soul hath seen, laden with fruit and always green;
the trees of nature fruitless be compared with Christ the apple tree.
His beauty doth all things excel; by faith I know but ne’er can tell the glory which I now can see in Jesus Christ the apple tree.
For happiness I long have sought and pleasure dearly I have bought;
I missed of all, but now I see ’tis found in Christ the apple tree.
I’m weary with my former toil, here I will sit and rest awhile;
under the shadow I will be of Jesus Christ the apple tree.
This fruit doth make my soul to thrive, it keeps my dying faith alive;
which makes my soul in haste to be with Jesus Christ the apple tree.*

Listening for the Word

Prayer for Illumination

Psalter Psalm 126

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, then were we like those who dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy.
Then they said among the nations,
“The Lord has done great things for them.”
The Lord has done great things for us,
and we are glad indeed.
Restore our fortunes, O Lord,
like the watercourses of the Negeb.
Those who sowed with tears
will reap with songs of joy.
Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed,
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

Gloria Patri (unison)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:[†] as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Scripture Lesson Isaiah 61:1–4, 8–11; Luke 1:46–55

Sermon :: “Those Who Dream . . . Sow Joy” Shannon J. Kershner

Responding to the Word

Hymn “Keep Your Lamps Trimmed and Burning”

We are climbing Jacob’s ladder; we are climbing Jacob’s ladder;
we are climbing Jacob’s ladder, for the time is drawing nigh.

Refrain

Sisters, don’t grow weary; brothers, don’t grow weary;
children, don’t grow weary, for the time is drawing nigh.

Prayers of the People

The Lord’s Prayer (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Offering and Prayer of Dedication

Offertory Solo

“Rejoice Greatly, O Daughter of Zion” from Messiah George Frideric Handel
*Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Zion, behold, thy King cometh unto thee.
He is the righteous Savior, and he shall speak peace unto the heathen.*

[†]Or “to the Creator, and to the Christ, and to the Holy Ghost.”

Bearing the Word into the World

Hymn “My Soul Gives Glory to My God”

My soul gives glory to my God;
my heart pours out its praise.
God lifted up my lowliness
in many marvelous ways.

My God has done great things for me:
yes, holy is God’s name.
All people will declare me blessed,
and blessings they shall claim.

From age to age to all who fear,
such mercy love imparts, dispensing justice far and near,
dismissing selfish hearts.

Love casts the mighty from their thrones,
promotes the insecure,
leaves hungry spirits satisfied;
the rich seem suddenly poor.

Praise God, whose loving covenant supports those in distress, remembering past promises
with present faithfulness.

“Sow in Tears”

by Hannah Garrity

Inspired by Psalm 126 | Paper lace

Here, ripples of the waters of the Negeb frame the patterning of paper lace.

These ripples represent the restoration celebrated in Psalm 126. The patterns within the ripples represent the tears and seeds at the sowing, the mature stalk at the reaping.

To sow joy is a powerful move. As young parents, in our striving we each try to figure out where the money for the next month's bills will come from. Simultaneously, we turn around and see our precious little ones looking to us for love, for strength, for righteousness, for how to do as Jesus would do. In those moments, even as the questions about how to keep our world on track swirl, we are compelled to sow joy, strength, and clarity in their hearts and minds.

As an educator, I have studied Culturally Responsive Teaching this year. In Zaretta Hammond's book, Culturally Responsive Teaching and the Brain, the initial, powerful, charge with this mindset is to see each student as an asset to the class discussion and community. That may sound insignificant, but it is expansive. Imagine if we intentionally sought to see each person around us as an asset to our collective and interwoven lives in community. How might our thinking change? How might the ripples of empowerment permeate our relationships and the relationships of those around us? Can we make this our intention? Can we sow joy?
