Gathering around the Word

Prelude

Processional	William Mathias
A Stately Processional	Eric DeLamar
Processia Nova	Kenneth L. DeLong

Introit :: “Hosanna to the Son of David” Jody W. Lindh

*Hosanna to the Son of David! Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Glory be to God on high! The people heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.
Riding on a donkey's colt, palm branches spread before him. The disciples didn't understand what was happening at first, but when Jesus, the King, was glorified, then they remembered it had all been written. Hosanna!*

*Doxology (sung)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.[†] Amen.

Welcome and Call to Worship

Prayer of Praise

[†]Or “praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.”

Hymn “All Glory, Laud, and Honor”

Refrain

All glory, laud, and honor to thee, Redeemer, King,
to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring!

Thou art the King of Israel, thou David’s royal Son, who in the Lord’s name comest, the King and blessed One. Refrain

The people of the Hebrews with palms before thee went;
our praise and prayers and anthems before thee we present. Refrain

To thee, before thy passion, they sang their hymns of praise;
to thee, now high exalted, our melody we raise. Refrain

Thou didst accept their praises; accept the prayers we bring, who in all good delightest, thou good and gracious King! Refrain

Moment with Our Children

Prayer of Confession (unison)

God of palm branches and hallelujahs,
we confess we love a good Palm Sunday celebration.
We love the sound of a joyful parade.
We love shouting “hallelujah!”
We love that Palm Sunday means Easter is just around the corner.
We love good news.
However, if we slow down and pay attention,
we know that Palm Sunday was not a walk in the park for you.
There was risk. There was fear.
There was the threat of violence.
You were leading a peaceful protest against an unjust empire,
and the whole world knew it.
Forgive us for glossing over the courage this day took.
Remind us that the story of faith is a story of courage and even we can do hard things.
With hope we pray. Amen.

Extinguishing the Sixth Lenten Candle

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news:

All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Anthem :: “O Savior of the World” John Goss

O Savior of the world, who by thy cross and precious blood hast redeemed us, save us and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord. Amen.

Listening for the Word

Prayer for Illumination

Psalter Psalm 118:1–2, 19–29

Give thanks to the Lord, for the Lord is good; God’s mercy endures forever.

Let Israel now declare, open for me the gates of righteousness;

I will enter them and give thanks to the Lord.

“This is the gate of the Lord; here the righteous may enter.”

I give thanks to you, for you have answered me and you have become my salvation.

The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

By the Lord has this been done; it is marvelous in our eyes.

This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Hosanna! O Lord, save us! We pray to you, Lord, prosper our days!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord;

we bless you from the house of the Lord.

The Lord is God and has given us light.

Form a procession with branches up to the corners of the altar.

You are my God, and I will thank you; you are my God, and I will exalt you.

Give thanks to the Lord, for the Lord is good; God’s mercy endures forever.

Gloria Patri (unison)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:† as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

†Or “to the Creator, and to the Christ, and to the Holy Ghost.”

Responding to the Word

Hymn “Beneath the Cross of Jesus”

Beneath the cross of Jesus I fain would take my stand,
the shadow of a mighty rock within a weary land;
a home within the wilderness, a rest upon the way, from the burning of the noontide heat, and the burden of the day.

Upon the cross of Jesus mine eye at times can see the very dying form of One who suffered there for me;
and from my stricken heart with tears two wonders I confess:
the wonders of redeeming love and my unworthiness.

I take, O cross, thy shadow for my abiding place;
I ask no other sunshine than the sunshine of his face;
content to let the world go by, to know no gain or loss,
my sinful self my only shame, my glory all the cross.

Prayers of the People

The Lord’s Prayer (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
 and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Offering and Prayer of Dedication

Offertory Solo ♪ “Crucifixus” from Messe di Gloria Giacomo Puccini
He was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

Bearing the Word into the World

Hymn “They Crucified My Lord”

They crucified my Lord, and he never said a mumbalin’ word;
they crucified my Lord, and he never said a mumbalin’ word.
Not a word, not a word, not a word.

They nailed him to a tree, and he never said a mumbalin’ word;
they nailed him to a tree, and he never said a mumbalin’ word.
Not a word, not a word, not a word.

They pierced him in the side, and he never said a mumbalin’ word;
they pierced him in the side, and he never said a mumbalin’ word.
Not a word, not a word, not a word.

Charge and Benediction

Postlude ♯ Ah, Holy Jesus Johannes Brahms

Each Sunday during Lent we are extinguishing a candle during worship. Just as we lit candles on the Advent wreath to symbolize the light coming into the world through the birth of Christ, so now our extinguishing of candles points to the Lenten progression from light to the shadows of Good Friday and the crucifixion.

Today is the last day to make Easter flower gifts in honor or memory of loved ones. The Easter flowers will decorate the Sanctuary for our online Easter service, and a list of those individuals remembered will be printed in the Easter bulletin. Contributions can be made online at www.bit.ly/FPCgifts and must be received by today, Sunday, March 28 for names to appear in the bulletin. For more information, email Andrea Miller (amiller@fourthchurch.org).

Worship Notes

TODAY'S CLOSING HYMN, "THEY CRUCIFIED MY LORD," is an African American spiritual recalling Christ's Passion. Spirituals like this one and the well-known "Were You There" provide poignant evidence of the empathy and power born of shared suffering. The call-and-response singing style of both hymns provides a means of affirming the communal wisdom expressed in recurring phrases and refrains.

OFFERING GIFTS can be made at fourthchurch.org/give-online (or via the "To Make a Gift" button on our website: www.fourthchurch.org); via Venmo (@Fourth-Church); or via a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.

“Through the Palms”

by Lauren Wright Pittman

Inspired by John 12:1-19 | Hand-carved block printed with oil-based ink on paper

Jesus lies down on the donkey’s back, steeling himself before his journey through the palms. He has a target on his back—he’s a disruption to the status quo upheld by the Pharisees and chief priests and a threat to the power of the empire. His friend Lazarus is caught up in it all too. I imagine as Jesus closes his eyes and strokes the donkey’s hair, he hears the anguish in Mary and Martha’s voices as they cried out to him, wondering why he took so long. I imagine he smells the pungent fragrance of the burial perfume poured on his feet, bringing into clarity the reality of his impending death. I imagine he sees the judgment on Judas’s face as Jesus was scrutinized for wasting perfume and neglecting those in desperate need.

Jesus plans to enter the city in a way that symbolically subverts power, taking a route opposite of the military leaders who oversee the festival celebrations. His entry would make a definitive statement, imaging an alternative kind of power, a servant leader riding a humble donkey. He knew this act would inch him closer to state-sanctioned torture and death.

We are in a time when we need to draw on courage to call into question the structures that uphold systems of oppression. We are in a time when we need to subvert the powerful and protect the vulnerable. The crowds close in on Jesus. Some lift their hands in praise; others point accusingly. I hope this image serves as a reminder to call upon God for the courage you need, to rest and recharge for the work ahead. But I hope it also heartens you to move forward in courage, even in the midst of great resistance, toward the work God is calling you into.
